ANP coffee clatch announced

Associated Newspapers will be hosting a coffee hour for members of the community interested in discussing local problems and how their newspaper might be of service in solving those problems.

The first coffee hour will be held on Friday May 27, 1977, at Associated Newspapers headquarters, 35540 W. Michigan Avenue, Wayne. The group must be limited to the first 15 people who call for a reservation.

Coffee and donuts will be served during the informal discussion to begin at 4 p.m. ANP's entire editorial staff will be available to answer your questions concerning local news gathering and coverage.

Associated is offering the members of the communities we serve this opportunity to improve mutual communications.

Provided that there is sufficient interest in this type of get-together, Associated will continue, on a regular basis, the 'coffee clatch forum'.

ANP offices closed

On Monday May 30, all Associated Newspaper offices will be closed in observance of the Memorial Day holiday. We can be reached on Monday at the Wayne-Westland parade, or at the Inkster parade. Come on out and join us in the fun.

Belleville bike race is set

Belleville city officials warn that "deadline day" to register for the annual bike race is May 31 at 4 p.m.

Bike riders are eligible from all over Wayne County and there is no registration fee. However, everyone entering must fill out an application form and entrants under 18 years of age require their parent's or guardian's signature.

The race is slated for June 18 and youngsters and oldsters alike will assemble at 12:30 p.m. in the parking lot behind the old National Bank of Detroit building at Main and Fourth streets.

The first race begins at 1 p.m. and the course will begin in front of Old Township Hall, 405 Main St., and travel successively down Roys, Church, Third and Main Streets before returning to the starting place.

Several divisions will be run, including ages 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15, 16-17, adult and senior citizens. Trophies will be awarded to all winners and all participants will receive a prize.

Those wishing more information may call Belleville City Hall at 697-9323, or Don Carlson at 697-2271.

Blackboard flu hits Van Buren

The so-called "Black board flu" which has disabled school teachers in nearby districts apparently has spread to Van Buren School District.

The secondary schools were closed when 106 Van Buren teachers called in sick out of a staff of 335. Closed were Belleville High, where 49 of 84 teachers called in sick, and South Junior High, where 29 of 37 did not report for work.

Sixteen instructors called in sick at Rawsonville Elementary School, but School Supt. Dale Kaulitz said substitutes were available to keep it open.

Although all schools were open Monday, North Jr. High was closed Friday when 27 of 36 teachers called in sick.

21 District bargaining unit possible

Super union for teachers?

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Is there a "super union" in the future of western Wayne County teachers?

Teacher union representatives of 21 local and area school districts have been meeting quietly for the past 18 months to draw up a constitution to consolidate all individual districts into one giant bargaining unit. They feel this would give them more "clout" in bargaining with the boards.

Included in the 21 districts forming the new bargaining unit are Wayne-Westland, Plymouth-Canton, Inkster, Cherry Hill and Westwood, Garden City, Romulus, Van Buren and Huron.

Two representatives from each of the 21 school districts in Wayne County have been meeting three times a month for the past 18 months, according to a spokesman who asked not to be identified.

In addition to the 42 representatives, there are also four at-large members, comprising a 46-member committee which is drafting a constitution. The constitution reportedly covers the operation of one large bargaining unit which would represent all teachers from the 21 school districts.

While it has been reported that the Michigan Education Association (MEA) was seeking to merge the 9,000 Wayne County teachers into one unit, it appears that final steps are now in progress.

Individual teacher associations have been holding informational meetings and dates have been set to vote on whether to join the super union, the spokesman said.

The "super union" — which may be called Wayne County MEA-NEA or Wayne County Educational Association — would have one bargaining team negotiate teacher contracts in each of the 26 school districts in Wayne County where the union has representation.

The constitution was completed a month ago and now informational slide presentation meetings are being held in the various local districts. Six or eight local teacher associations will vote on joining the county-wide group between May 30 and June 10.

Plymouth teachers will have a slide presentation May 31 and vote on June 9; Van Buren teachers will have a slide presentation on June 7 and vote June 9.

Romulus Education Association held an informational meeting Monday and reportedly will vote May 26.

Our source close to the scene said he really "can't say how individual district teachers will vote when it comes to joining the 'super union'".

Teacher representatives freely discussed the matter of the "super union", but said they would rather not be quoted at this time.

High level chicken

This frisky chicken is perched high on the shoulder of firstplace winner Lisa Priest at Mt. Pleasant School's Science Fair last week. The bird not only got high ratings, but also high altitude. David Dove, a first grader, looks on as fifth-grader Lisa displays her blue ribbon. The third annual Science Fair drew approximately 100 exhibits from grades 1-6 and was under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Simmons, Miss Mary Peterson and Mrs. Charlotte Price. There were 25 first-place ribbons given out during the day.

Fuel-pump flu hits

The "blackboard flu" in Romulus has developed another "strain".

Last week, teachers alternately were plagued with the virus at the secondary level and elementary level.

On Monday, all schools were open, but the bus drivers came down with "something" as 33 of 53 called in sick.

"The virus must be going around," said Supt. Jim Garfield Monday, after explaining about the "steering wheel" flu which hit the school district.

Last Wednesday, 110 secondary teachers called in sick, closing North and South Jr. Highs and the senior high school. Thursday saw 100 elementary instructors phone in ill, closing all nine elementary schools.

On Friday, it was the illness hitting 90 secondary teachers which again sent all junior high and high school students home.

Romulus administrators were scheduled to meet with the Romulus Education Association with a mediator this week, but the association asked for a week's delay.

However, Garfield said the administration had scheduled a meeting Monday afternoon with the REA. He didn't reveal exactly what would be discussed, but there's no doubt both parties would like to see some progress in their negotiations.

"The problem is money," Garfield said.

"There just doesn't seem to be enough to meet all our various needs."

Clean-up grant awarded

The City of Romulus has received $37,000 for its second year block grant neighborhood clean-up fix-up campaign.

According to the stipulations, the federal money must be spent to service six primary target areas and cannot be used to fund regular city programs.

Ten Romulus High School seniors are scheduled to be hired to do the work which will begin immediately and run through September. Eight of the temporary employees will be Environmental Aides at $2.75 per hour and the other two will be Environmental Leaders at $3 per hour. Miscellaneous equipment will cost an estimated $80 for a total of $30,000 for the clean-up phase of the program.

Some $6,000 will be spent on paint and $500 on grass and flower seed for low and moderate income families. Another $500 is allocated for re-painting signs.

"We're very happy over this Block Grant and feel it will help us to beautify our city," said Community Development Director Stephen Bonczek.

Applicants for the job must be at least 18 years old and Bonczek said the program would employ recent Romulus High School graduates. Interested students should contact Sandy Sojut, of the Personnel Department, at City Hall — 941-0666. The workers will use DPW city equipment.

Six target areas of the clean-up phase are: Wayne Rd. VBeverly Urban Renewal city-owned lots — cut weeds minimum of every three weeks.

Other areas, Gordonier, litter pick-up weekly; Old Village, frequent litter pick-up; Meadows, cut grass weekly in approaches;

General — increase frequency of cutting intersection turn-arounds; and clean-up litter on Wayne Road from Goddard to Van Born.

An additional $4,000 will be spent on programs operated through the Help Center. $3,000 will provide lawn maintenance to low and moderate income senior citizens from May through October. Another $1,000 is set aside to maintain the senior citizen chore services program. (See picture on page three).

MD week proclaimed

Romulus Mayor James C. Stewart has proclaimed Muscular Dystrophy month throughout the city — May 15 through June 15 — in a special ceremony last week.

Calling upon the people of Romulus to support the 1977 March appeal by Muscular Dystrophy, Stewart said, "I urge each citizen, as he is able, to join with the Muscular Dystrophy Association, in the fight to find the cause and cure of this relentless crippler, hoping all the while that we may not be too late to spare many who are already afflicted."

The proclamation states that tragedy has been wrought in the homes of many of local citizens through the ravages of the mysterious and dread disease.

"Muscular dystrophy has stricken untold numbers of Americans a majority of them being children, and has doomed them to a complete crippling and untimely death."

The Romulus mayor said these victims derive comfort and hope from MDA's comprehensive program of patient care and research.

"The only hope for defeating this dread disease lies in the extensive medical research program being conducted now and financed by the contributions made to the dedicated volunteers as they conduct the annual house-to-house campaign known as Dystrophy's March Against Time," he said.

The annual drive, which began May 15 and extends through June 15, seeks funds to support an all-out research attack against the crippling, muscle-wasting disease and to provide clinic and patient services.

Some 250,000 Americans are victims of muscular dystrophy, most of them children, in whom it is nearly always fatal. Neither the cause of the disease nor an effective treatment for it has yet been found.

The 1977 Volunteer Chairman for Romulus is Miss Elvera Fischer, 30880 Ecorse, Romulus, 48174. Those wishing to help in the worthwhile cause may volunteer by calling "March Against Time" headquarters at 390-8880.

Keep on truckin

One of the highlights of Michigan Week were the displays on Wednesday in the parking lot and in the tent near the Public Library. Labeled Hospitality Day, the mid-week activity drew several displays from local businesses and even a fire truck from the fire department. City officials, after eight hectic days of non-stop activity during Michigan Week, called the event one of the most successful undertakings ever tried in Romulus.

Restaurant Review

Baldo's of Romulus

(Editor Dennis Fassett fills in for Lee Smith this week.)

The jetliner was cruising toward Detroit Metropolitan Airport at 35,000 feet. In the cockpit, the captain was on the radio to the tower.

An emergency? No, only another customer of Geno DiMilia's. DeMilia, a sunny fellow of Italian decent is the proud owner of Baldo's Restaurant, located at the Wayne Port shopping center, Wayne road at I-94. Counted among the many satisfied customers who frequent his comfortable establishment, are airline personnel both working at, and flying into, nearby Metro.

As recounted by DeMilia: "It is no longer unusual for us to get a call from the tower at Metro with a request to deliver pizza to an area hotel for the crew of an incoming flight. Many times they are still hundreds of miles away when the order is placed." Not unusual? Well maybe not for DiMilia.

It was DiMilia's restaurant — Baldo's — that my family invaded Friday evening, and it also was somewhat unusual.

We were met at the door by Jean our waitress, and escorted to a quiet corner.

The interior of Baldo's which seats 75, is decorated in a Mediterranean flavor with quiet subdued lighting and comfortable private booths set in along the interior walls and with tables in the center.

Jean promptly brought us our menus and exchanged smiles with the kids.

On this occasion Mom and I had brought three of the four munchkins (big munchkin had a ball game) along with us. Mark, our soon-to-be 14 year-old; Scott, 11, and Jennifer, 8, all instantly agreed that pizza was their choice.

Looking over the menu it was easy to understand Mom's difficulty in selecting a dish.

While Baldo's does specialize in Italian favorites, also offered were Steaks, Seafood, Ribs, Chicken, Veal Parmigian and Pizza.

After a few mouth-watering moments of decision both Fran and I selected the house specialty, a mixed casserole topped with Mozzarella cheese and homemade spaghetti sauce. Included in the dish was ravioli, mostaccioli, gnocchi, tortellini and spaghetti. This item is listed on the menu at only $2.65 for a half order, or $3.95 for a full dish, enough to feed several normal people.

The kids settled on the Baldo's special pizza — extra large size — with cheese, pepperoni, green pepper and mushrooms. This 18-inch creation was a thing of beauty and priced at only $7.64.

The family-size antipasto salad, replete with ham, salami, American cheese, provolone cheese, tomatoes and olives and served with DiMilia's own dressing, was superb. One of the best I have ever tasted.

The pizza and special casserole followed shortly after we had finished off the salad. The thick blanket of melted Mozzarella was a tempting target for our anxious forks. The kids already had begun their attack on the pizza.

The vote after was unanimous. Baldo's is a fine spot to put on your list of restaurants you must visit.

Sitting back, drinking coffee still priced at only 30 cents Fran and I agreed. Pleasant surroundings, comfortable furnishings, fine food, and reasonable prices all added up to not only good dining, but a nice experience as well. You should try it.

Public may get more 'air' time

With the passage of the "Sunshine" or Open Meetings law, the public has more opportunity for attendance and input at meetings affecting them.

In addition, many elected boards are giving time for citizens' discussion near the beginning of meetings.

However, Romulus City Clerk Leonard Folmar has drafted a plan where citizens may speak after each agenda item, if they follow designated procedures. The Romulus City Council recently approved procedures whereby any member of the public may speak on any item, subject to the following conditions:

—"Individuals wishing to address council or board should fill out a card provided, listing name, address and agenda item on which comments are desired to be made and present to clerk or recording secretary."

—"When the agenda item is reached, the clerk or recording secretary shall call upon those persons who have filed the desire to speak."

—"When recognized by the chair, the person shall give name and proceed to address the council, board or commission."

—"The remarks shall be limited to three minutes, subject to being extended to an additional three minutes by consent of the chair."

—"No person shall be permitted to address the group on any one item more than once at any one meeting without the approval of a majority of the quorum present."

All of the foregoing does not apply to a person previously granted a hearing at the meeting in question.

This rule does not contemplate nor permit members of the public to join in debate or discussion with members of the body or with other members of the public present at such meeting.

"We feel this is a way to give interested citizens an opportunity address their concern on definite items and still maintain an orderly flow to the meetings," Folmar said.

Budget meeting: Was it or wasn't it

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus City Council had a meeting set up to discuss the mayor's proposed budget. Or did they?

It depends on who you talk to. Mayor James C. Stewart says the May 17 meeting was to go over his proposed budget, discuss possible changes and perhaps vote on it.

Council members, as is often the case, say that's not what was planned at all.

Only five council members showed up at last week's council meeting, and only four of them actually were on hand for the meeting. When Councilman Jimmie C. Rasperry walked out shortly after the session began, there were only three lonely council members at the desk and the "budget meeting" was adjourned.

"I understood it to be a budget session," Rasperry said afterward. "The mayor is supposed to present his budget and give us council members a chance to get his rationale behind the amounts he wants to spend on different items."

Rasperry, who has held office since 1953, except from 1973-75, feels there's a definite lack of communication between the mayor and council.

"I backed Stewart the last election, so I don't have any political motives in dissenting," Rasperry asserted. "The charter says he must present his budget on or before April 1. Well, he presented half of it about mid-April and the other half around the end of April. We had a 3-week delay."

The outspoken Rasperry claims the council never was told it was a special meeting and when they arrived they thought it would be to simply study the budget.

When Larry Moore of the mayor's staff began to present the budget, Rasperry requested Stewart to do it. Stewart said Moore was speaking on his behalf, and Rasperry reportedly asked to be excused from the meeting.

Rasperry claims Mayor Stewart called him a name as he started to leave.

"I heard him say something, and I returned to my seat. If he wants to deal in issues, I'll be glad to work with Mr. Stewart. But if he deals in name-calling, the walls won't be big enough to hold the two of us," Rasperry said.

Mrs. Joan Lee was in the hallway before the meeting, but left before the council meeting started, cutting the number to four. Rasperry quoted Mrs. Lee as saying: "And now they're going to force this budget on us. I was sick to my stomach before, and this only makes it worse."

Mayor Stewart denies calling Rasperry any names.

"The man's mistaken," Stewart said. "I think this whole thing of these people walking out on the budget meeting is to make my administration look bad. They're only making themselves look bad."

The mayor added: "I saw Rasperry, Mrs. McAnally, (another council member), and Treasurer John Lewkowicz standing in the parking lot talking before the meeting. They had this whole thing planned. I've heard that some on the council have said they don't care if the budget ever gets passed."

Mayor Pro-tem Gerry Canejo called special council meetings Monday and Tuesday nights of this week to discuss the budget.

VIP airport tour

The Wayne County Road Commission sponsored trips through the Detroit Metropolitan Airport on World Trade Day last week during Michigan Week in Romulus. It ran several bus-loads of citizens at various times and even included what was called a VIP tour of city officials. In the flight tower is part of the tour were Gerry Canejo (from left), mayor pro-tem; Robert Reese, city attorney; Hyle Carmichael, industrial coordinator; Thelma Shivel, deputy city clerk; Beverly McAnally, council member; Irene Stewart, the mayor's wife, and Mrs. McAnally's daughter, Andrea, who was visiting from California.

View at Metro

Romulus city officials were hosted on a tour of Detroit Metropolitan Airport last week by Wayne County Road Commission, operator of the facility. The commission showed its visitors the flight tower and cargo area in addition to the International Terminal. In a mini-van

See city: Then now

If the past, present and future of Romulus means more to you than your favorite tv program, then you should attend the City Council meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The reason is a new slide presentation, recently prepared by the Romulus Public Information Department, which will be formally presented to City Council members.

Prepared on the occasion of the recent mayor's exchange with Highland Park's Jesse P. Miller, the program details the history of Romulus from a swampy settlement near the Huron River to today's role as one of the prime industrial areas in the State to a glimpse into a bright future.

Put together over a 3-week period of frenzied picture taking, recording and writing sessions, the completed program was produced entirely with the talent and resources currently available in the City.

Leonard Folmar, who directed the project, said the theme is purposefully general in scope so that it can be modified later to appeal to varied audiences, including potential residents, industries, civic groups and school classes.

Cleaning up the city

Soon 10 Romulus High School graduates will be hired for four months to work on a federal "Clean up, fix up" program that will make Romulus spic and span. It is part of a second-year Block Grant Neighborhood Conservation, contingencies and countercyclical program. Getting the equipment ready Department of Public Works (DPW) equipment ready for the temporary employees include Dave Paul (from left), DPW Director; Stephen Bonczek, community development director; Mayor James C. Stewart and DPW Supervisor Joe Kochanoski. Three DPW vehicles to be used for the city-wide clean up campaign were made road-worthy thanks to extensive repair work performed by four DPW mechanics. Funds of $3,000 were made available through the countercyclical grant program that permitted Howard Overmyer, George Simco, Byron Ashley and Jim Hicks to make the repairs. The mechanics worked four weeks, as time permitted, thus saving the city an estimated $3,000 in outside repair costs.—ANP photo.

Who are you? Lawmakers want to know

If you have ideas about running for a local municipal or school board position this year, state lawmakers now want to know exactly who you are, who's contributing to your campaign, how much money is involved and what you're doing with it.

That's the message in brief, that came last Wednesday at a meeting of some 60 Wayne County communities, called by Chief Deputy County Clerk Orville Tungate.

Tungate invited all 80 cities, townships and school boards in Wayne County to be informed about the new election financing legislation recently signed into law.

Public Act 388, which will take full effect on June 1, according to Tungate, is a reaction to the alleged financing improprieties committed by the Committee to Re-elect the President (CREP) and the Nixon Administration.

Briefly, the law stipulates that if you presently are holding an elected office, or are considering running for one, you must, within 10 days after June 1 form a candidate committee, open a bank account and appoint a treasurer.

Within 10 days after a committee is formed, you also must file a statement of organization with the Wayne County Clerk's Office, including names, addresses and telephone numbers of the committee, its members, the treasurer, the bank where campaign finances will be deposited, as well as other pertinent information.

Then, 10 days prior to the election — both primary and general — 30 days after the election and, assuming you win, June 1 of every year, tell how much money you have spent and how.

Tungate related that although these provisions at first glance appear to be very strict, an earlier version of the bill was much more comprehensive, but was scaled down in early 1976 as a result of a Michigan Supreme Court ruling.

However, Tungate he expects to see more similar legislation passed covering and regulating the spending behavior of lobbyists and even stricter financial disclosure demanded of elected officials and candidates.

Attending the meeting from Romulus were City Clerk Leonard Folmar and Deputy Clerk Thelma Shivel. Van Buren Clerk Doreen Craven and Stephanie Soja Supervisor Pat Cullin's secretary, were present from Van Buren Township and Elwood Bos, secretary of the Van Buren Board of Education, were also on hand.

Folmar said he "welcomed the controls and will be contacting all declared candidates in the City of Romulus to insure that they have all necessary forms and are fully informed concerning the provisions of the law.

Mrs. Craven also would be making candidates and future candidates aware of the new law.

Anyone seeking further information about the new law should contact their city or township clerk's office.

Service conducted for Edward Clark

A well-known, beloved man of Romulus has passed away, leaving a host of friends and tender memories. Edward Verdel Clark Sr., died May 14 at the age of 49.

Penn Funeral Home in Inkster conducted the funeral and interment was at Metropolitan Memorial Park in Belleville.

Born in Gary, W. Va., on Jan. 3, 1928 to Elaine and Inza Clark, he was brought up in a family that showed love as the key word in living.

He married Geneva Patterson on Dec. 23, 1948, later moving to Romulus in 1955 with their two children, Edward Jr. and Brenda.

Although a devoted family man, Mr. Clark always found time for others. In his early days in Romulus, he was a tireless worker with the Boy Scouts.

In later life, he played Santa Claus to Romulus elementary children, the Eager Beavers and the 1976 and 1977 graduating class of Romulus High School.

The nine pallbearers serving at his funeral grew up in scouting under Clark.

He was baptized in March, 1966 by the late Elder Horace Jackson, former pastor of Bethany Apostolic Faith Church of Beverly Road, Romulus. Always helpful for get-togethers, he will be remembered for his chili pot for the young people's October meetings and his cheerful contributions to New Year's festivities.

His mellow saxophone sound seemed to begin deep in his heart and spread to all those who listened to his artful playing.

Survivors include his wife, Geneva, daughter, Brenda, son and daughter-in-law, Edward and Joyce Clark Jr.; and his grandson, Edward V. Clark III. He also leaves many nieces, nephews and cousins. Maybe the Romulus Eager Beavers' group said it best.

"With his patience he was able to bring out the artistic abilities of our children. His participation in all their activities has given each one much enjoyment," their tribute read.

State's motorists are headed for biggest holiday weekend

Michigan motorists may be headed for the biggest Michigan Memorial Day weekend ever, according to a spokesman for the Department of State Highways and Transportation.

That's the cautious prediction of department traffic technicians, who estimate a total of 714 million vehicle miles will be driven over the 4-day weekend—more than any previous Memorial Day weekend in history.

The forecasters pointed out, however, that bad weather ruined their 1976 prediction of a record 710 million miles over the same weekend. The actual count was 679 million miles. Traffic predictions are based on gasoline consumption and traffic counts throughout the state.

To prepare highways and freeways for anticipated traffic, director of State Highways and Transportation John P. Woodford, ordered all highway construction suspended between 3 p.m. Friday and normal starting hours on Tuesday. Only emergency or authorized work will be permitted on state highways and freeways over the weekend.

In addition, Woodford ordered an inspection of all signing and lighting in construction areas and on detours maintained around construction areas. Use of highways by heavy construction equipment over the weekend also has been prohibited.

With cooperation from the Chevrolet Division of General Motors, Saginaw River Boat traffic will be scheduled to avoid opening the Zilwaukee Bridge on I-75 from 2 to 11 p.m. Friday, 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday and 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Detours on state highways are:

- M-51 (Fifth Street) over the Amtrak Railroad in Niles is detoured over city streets, adding a half mile to the regular route until September.
- US-10 (Ludington Avenue) in Ludington is detoured for one mile over city streets until June.

- M-44 (M-37) between I-96 and M-21 (Fulton Street) in Grand Rapids is detoured due to reconstruction work. The detour over I-96 and M-11 (Twenty-Eighth Street) adds 3.5 miles to normal route and will remain in effect until fall.
- M-21 west of Ada between Carl Drive and Grand River Drive is closed for widening and reconstruction. M-21 traffic is routed over Carl Drive and Grand River Drive with no increase in distance.
- US-12 Business Route at the east Ypsilanti city limit is detoured via M-17 (Ecorse Road) and the US-12 bypass, adding one mile to the normal route. Detour is caused by demolition of the bridge carrying Ford Boulevard over US-12 BR.
- M-106 at the Portage River north of Jackson is closed for bridge construction. Detour, via local roads, adds one mile to the normal route.

Freeways and state highways where construction interferes with, but does not detour traffic, are:

- I-75 over the Rouge River in Detroit. Bridge deck work reduces traffic to four lanes.
- I-75 between I-675 and M-13 near Saginaw. Lane restrictions due to widening. All northbound lanes open weekends for northbound traffic and all southbound lanes open for return southbound traffic.
- I-75 from Mt. Morris Road near Flint to Birch Run. Pavement patching requires periodic lane closures. (No weekend closures).
- I-75 near the Raisin River in Monroe. Lane closures.
- I-75 between Southfield and Goddard roads in downriver Detroit. Lane closures.
- M-153 (Ford Road) between Beech-Daly and Inkster roads has lane restrictions because of construction.
- I-94 in Jackson area, lane closures due to construction.
- US-2 over the Escanaba River Bridge in Escanaba reduced to one lane in each direction.
- US-127 at M-50 and the Conrail crossing just south of Jackson, reduced to one lane in each direction.

An editorial opinion

Blackboard flu is not a responsible answer

The recent attack of blackboard-flu experienced by Romulus teachers is an indication of a basic weakness in a free enterprise system predicated on the principle of collective bargaining.

While no one can argue with the premise that teachers as well as other groups have the right to organize for the collective benefit of their members, any attempt by those groups to take economic advantage of the very system that has allowed them to form their bargaining unit, must be resisted by the citizens who ultimately must foot the bill.

An interesting point in question. During the flu outbreak at the Romulus schools, teachers were calling in sick. Since it soon became obvious to school administrators that there would not be a sufficient number of teachers on hand to conduct classes, the decision was made to close the schools for the day. Now what happened to that one day of school the children of Romulus were forced to miss?

Well fortunately for the children, there is a state law mandating a 180 day school year, but who will make up for that lost day at the end of the year? Teachers who now seem to be more dedicated to themselves than their children, will most likely not donate their labors for that one day in order to meet state requirements.

We have now found ourselves in the situation of having had to pay those teachers, suffering with blackboard-flu, for the day that they called in sick, and again for the make-up day required at the end of the year. It seems that contrary to the normal collective bargaining system, our teachers can have their cake and eat it too!

We feel that a teacher, or anyone else has the right to engage in a stop work situation, but they must accept the full economic consequences of that act.

In order to gain the support of the citizens of the community, it will be necessary for teachers to accept full responsibility for their actions. And without citizen support no group can hope to be successful in the long run, and the arguments for improved teacher benefit packages will soon fall on deaf ears.

How much longer will the over-taxed homeowners of our city be forced to swallow the ever increasing costs associated with educating their children? Many have already expressed mounting displeasure with teachers, school boards, and the system as a whole.

It is time for a rethinking of our priorities.

Teachers must accept their responsibility to the community as a whole, school boards must accept their responsibility to the community and the teachers as well, and the citizens must accept the responsibility of supporting the educational institutions entrusted with the futures of our children.

On the brighter side

I lost the power

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

My Managing Editor keeps telling me what a powerful column I write.

(I think he does that in lieu of paying me a salary).

Well, this week my writing lost ALL its power. Not that it's much of a voltage loss, but it happened Sunday afternoon. Just as my wife and I had gotten comfortable for our usual Sunday afternoon siesta, a clap of thunder and bolt of lightning shook hands just outside our window.

My wife, who never misses a chance to come up with a brilliant statement, said astutely, "That didn't land very far from us at all!"

"What makes you say that?" I asked, trying to get the static cling from my undershirt. I won't say it shook me up, but just after the bolt thundered to earth, my hair-do looked a lot like Little Orphan Annie's.

We didn't find out until a little later that the power lines had been sapped of most of their power. Our lights only burned at about one-tenth their normal brightness. In fact, they were so dim we had to light a match to find them.

(And that was during the daytime). Various neighborhoods all around us were also without much power and our lights flickered like candles in early evening as Edison Company crews worked to restore full power.

"How am I going to do my homework without lights?" our 15-year-old Jeff inquired.

"My bookkeeping must be turned in tomorrow."

"Wouldn't that be a different excuse for not doing your homework? — the lights were too dim," I interjected.

"Use the five-candle centerpiece on the piano I just bought," My wife advised our youngest son. He sort of frowned at the suggestion, but set the candles on the kitchen table and my wife lit them for him. It made quite a picture — him setting there in the dim glow of five watts of electricity, five candles and his modern, battery-operated calculator doing his bookkeeping.

While all of this was going on, the thought struck me for the first time with any intensity that I wouldn't be able to type my column and other stories I had to do.

"Can you believe that?" I asked aloud. "I have a modern electric IBM typewriter and there's not enough electricity to turn it on." Jeff, who says he wants to become a newspaperman (where did I go wrong?), flipped on the typewriter switch — but to no avail.

Not being stopped by adversity, I thought about an old 1934 manual typewriter I could use. It's a Model T (for a typewriter). "That's what I'll use — a good, old-fashioned hand-powered typewriter!"

"But there isn't enough light to type," my wife remarked, puncturing my last hope.

I trembled. What would my boss say when I told him we had no lights or power and I didn't have my column and stories turned in the next morning? He's always thought I was a little dim — but would he believe our lights were that way, too?

Just about then our other son, Craig, arrived home and walked through the front door into the murky darkness. After we explained the power was almost completely out, he grabbed the flashlight and headed downstairs.

"Hey, look!", he exclaimed, showing us the weak light coming from the flashlight. "The lightning must have affected the flashlight batteries, too!" Then glancing over at Jeff doing his homework, he added, "The candles are brighter than the electric lights."

Seated at the kitchen table, Jeff completed a problem and peered at me through the soft candlelight. "Dad, is this the way you studied when you were young — by candlelight?" he asked with a smirk.

My two teenage sons enjoyed a good laugh over the remark, implying I was ancient and over the hill.

After a smart-aleck remark like that, I thought to myself: It's one thing to have lights that aren't very bright.

It's another thing entirely to have teenagers who aren't very bright!

The Bald Eagle Speaks

Let's regulate medical and legal fees

By BOB AMEEN

An old saying goes, "Time takes care of everything." In the field of medicine over the last few decades, things have changed drastically.

When I was a child back in a small Illinois town, doctor and lawyer fees were quite reasonable. Whether they got paid was another matter.

Family doctors of yesteryear braved the elements to make house calls; in fact, I would venture to guess they made as many or more house calls than those made by patients coming to their office. But, with a vastly different scale of living than we enjoy today, patients often were strapped for hard cash. So, the family sawbones was paid off in other commodities — potatoes, onions, hams, beef and just about every kind of produce grown.

In those days, even townspeople often raised their own vegetables. Today's supermarkets were unknown and money was not that plentiful.

This method of paying off the doctor often was applied to the town lawyer also, or lawyers, if more than one enterprising barrister dared stick out his shingle. Doctors, on the whole, still made out pretty well financially. Lawyers often were one stop away from bankruptcy at all times, unless, they were fortunate enough to be elected to a juicy plum like state's attorney, which corresponds to county prosecutor in Michigan. Then, the gravy rolled in.

In either case, doctor and lawyer fees were more or less set by each practitioner to fit the pocketbooks of those who lived in their community. True, they were stiff sometimes, but they were not out of line!

What a far cry from today's doctor fees, and their almost unanimous refusal to make house calls! Or, lawyers who charge ridiculous prices for divorces, crime trials, accident cases and the like.

Today, in suburban Detroit, just for the "privilege" of sitting and waiting for your family doctor to see you when it's your turn, you pay about $15. By the time you've left his office, after being subjected to every kind of test imaginable, you and your health insurance plan may be socked as much as $100 to $200. If one is unfortunate enough to be sent to the hospital for further tests and possibly an operation, the resulting charges could almost send a rocket to the moon!

In modern-day America, graduation from a medical school or law school, in a couple of years, virtually guarantees their graduates an annual starting salary of over $20,000. From then on, the sky is the limit!

This situation has come about due to the lack of control imposed by the states in which these professionals practice and are licensed. If a state, by virtue of granting a license, permits an individual to practice a profession, and whose proficiency in that profession can save or lose a human life, result in a jail sentence or financial bankruptcy, then the same state should have the moral right to limit what that individual can charge his customers.

Why should one doctor charge $1,000 for a specific operation, while another in the same area, slaps a $1,500 fee on his patient for the same surgery? Why should one lawyer levy a $1,000 tab for a divorce, while his counterpart down the street, only charges his client $400?

The licensing state should pass legislation which sets maximum fees for both doctors and lawyers, thereby protecting the patient and client, who are in reality, the consumer. All sorts of movements are underway today to protect the rights of the consumer in the sales field. Why are those same protections not afforded patients of doctors and clients of lawyers?

Recent state legislation now permits doctors and lawyers to advertise, a practice which was frowned upon by both professions as somewhat beneath their dignity. Which is worse ethically and morally — for doctors and lawyers to advertise and let the resulting competition determine their fees, or, to continue letting patients and clients to be subjected to the arbitrary whims of these practitioners as to fees charge?

Perhaps, this new legislation, augmented by what it is hoped to be a fierce spirit of competition, will resolve the problem to the point where "fair" fees will be charged doctors' patients and lawyers' clients in the near future.

If so, then the need for the state to control doctor and lawyer fees may not be necessary to protect this specialized type of consumer. But, whether it is or not, just to be on the safe side, individual states should put these protective curbs on fees in their statutes regardless.

Discussion on the whole subject is concluded with this one question. Why should a citizen of this United State of America, a democracy which guarantees more right and freedoms than any nation in the world, not be permitted to "shop around" for the lowest fees for medical or legal services?

Health Beat

Democratic group for democratic disease

(Concluded)

By RUSS TUTTLE
Director, Community Relations
Peoples Community Hospital Authority

We were sitting in the 5th floor office of the alcoholism treatment program at the Annapolis Hospital waiting to start our last interview with the satellite group.

The door opened, and in came one of the group members — gold hat cocked jauntily on his head, and a golf score card in his hand.

He announced to all that he had just shot an excellent round of golf (the figures on the card seemed to support his claim) and now he felt ready to take on any golfer.

There were the usual hoots and shouts of disbelief which became evident when a part-time golfer assumes such a tact.

And what's the point?

Simply this: the golfer was a member of the alcoholism therapy group who had just recently taken up the game of golf with any seriousness. As he told it, "I used to go out with my bag and clubs, and all the way to the course I'd pray for rain. If I was lucky and my prayers were answered, I could spend three or four hours at the 19th hole wrapped around a bottle of scotch and would not have to face the challenge offered by the golf course. I could slowly slip into a fantasy world and conjure up sub-par rounds, holes-in-one, and fantastic recoveries from impossible lies."

In short, what this man was doing was typical of most practicing alcoholics. He was ignoring reality and substituting the grandiosity of an alcohol-induced never-never world to satisfy his particular needs.

But now, as a sober member of society, he played the game, accepted the results of his efforts (although two of the scores he wrote on the card remain suspect!), and went about his business of existing in a real world.

He said that he had been sober for 15 years — a sobriety he had attained without any real formal program. Then, he slipped and was off and drinking again.

"I'm in this program at Annapolis," he said, "because I have finally come to the understanding that trying to quit drinking — at least if you are an alcoholic — by yourself without any professional support borders on the impossible.

"Oh sure, one can quit for a week or a month or two. But, unless one experiences a growth curve, just sure as hell that drinker will soon be back in the pits."

And that growth curve is attainable only through a program such as the Annapolis program. While we don't mean to suggest that the only program available is at the Annapolis Hospital, we do suggest that there are few other such programs in the country.

As we have said before, alcoholism is a disease which can be treated as can any other disease. And, left untreated, it will, as will most maladies, not go away but will get worse, possibly to the point of destroying the individual afflicted with the problem.

Indeed, society seems to have taken a curious position. We are perfectly willing to ignore the problem until the problem reaches a point where it is about to consume us. Then, we react (but seldom act) with copious tears and a wringing of hands asking ourselves what can we do about alcoholism.

"One thing which ought to be done," said Bob Denton, alcoholism therapist at Annapolis, "is to start a program of education when people are most receptive to education — when they are still youngsters.

"There is now a substantial body of scientific evidence which tells us that giving alcohol to small children — and unfortunately we are all probably guilty of giving a sip of beer to a tiny child — is perhaps the last thing we ought to do.

"According to William Altermeier, MD, Director of Pediatrics Service at Nashville (Tenn.) General Hospital, alcohol is a drug and should be handled as a poison around children.

"Alcohol tends to cause hypoglycemia (a decrease in blood sugar). The brain must have the blood sugar to function, and if the blood sugar level drops long enough, brain damage or retardation can occur."

And it was one of the members of the satellite group who said, "I had my first drink when I was six-months old, and didn't stop until I was forty."

Possibly there are today many people locked into psychiatric wards with permanent organic brain damage which had its genesis with a bottle of beer at age 4.

It's frightening to contemplate, but it's something which must be considered with a maximum of intelligence. This is the last column for this year on the satellite group at Annapolis. My mail last week — from two people — criticized me for using the noun men all the time in this series. I assure you that I'm not a sexist, and next week we plan to do a column on women alcoholics, and the very special problems they encounter.

After all, in this era of liberation, we are professionally obligated to give the distaff equal time in print.

Off the record

With ANP editors and writers

Not even a midget

As if Romulus City Hall doesn't have enough "unusual" happenings take place there — last week's typewriter caper was probably one of the most bizarre.

It seems Ray Cantrell, director of purchasing and inventory, needed a typewriter for use in the public library. He searched all over city hall and finally located four typewriters in Treasurer John Lewkowicz' office.

Lewkowicz reportedly has only two girls who can type on his staff and so Cantrell thought surely John could spare one typewriter. "When I asked him for it, can you believe he locked it in his safe?" Cantrell asked. "Go and see for yourself."

Unable to go immediately, a reporter asked Lewkowicz the next day if he really had a typewriter locked in his safe so Cantrell couldn't have it.

Lewkowicz paused, seeking the right words, then said, "It's broken. Besides, Cantrell doesn't have the right to demand it and give it to the public library. That typewriter was bought from my budget and belongs to my office."

That's probably true, John, but you must admit that even a midget would have difficulty typing inside a safe.

New bills introduced in the house

In introducing my own bills, I attempt to respond to these types of needs.

Minum bonds for other types of disposal

The legislation would require that the owner or operator of a solid waste hauling concern be licensed, rather than the trucks themselves as under present law. This requirement would not apply to refuse haulers with annual gross revenues of less than $20,000. Private haulers would pay a license fee for each truck, but governmental units would be exempt from the fee requirement.

Although fence viewing has become a little known and little used public responsibility, there is a need for it in certain areas, especially rural areas. However, I feel that these duties would be more effectively and easily handled if channeled through the district courts.

"Well, I could write a book," she said, "but "I said I wouldn't, that I couldn't. I had no one to watch them. But they said it was more important psychologically that my children go to school in their own neighborhood and play with their neighborhood children. They told me I had to find a neighbor who would let them come in out of the rain when they come home from school."

"Be sure and read Dr. Keliher's book. You can see what happens to administrators who know what's going on."

Christians are still arguing

It is the miracles that involve the breaking of natural laws that trouble the Bible scholars and theologians. They rule out miracles like walking on the water or the feeding of the 5,000 because, they say, there is no evidence

"We may not be able to feed the hungry in the way Jesus did when he fed the 5,000," says one clergyman, "but God can help us find other ways to help the starving in the world which can approximate Jesus' miracle."

Highway to M-96 past Kalamazoo's paper mills and through Comstock, Galesburg, Augusta, Springfield and finally to Battle Creek — a distance of 36 miles.

Rest stops are at River Oaks County Park, just east of Comstock; at Crum Park, four miles west of Augusta, and the nearly 3,000-acre Fort Custer Recreation Area on the east city limits of Augusta.

Bicyclists should pace themselves according to their ability. The League of American Wheelmen estimates the average bicyclist can cover 35 to 50 miles a day with ease. A card and pamphlet containing bicycle safety tips are available free at all Automobile Club of Michigan offices.

A 136-mile circle bicycle tour from Battle Creek to Kalamazoo via Marshall and Hastings is an up- and downhill trek through scenic rolling countryside dotted with Centennial farms, quaint rural towns and industrial centers. A tour of just over 30 miles covers only the loop from Battle Creek to Marshall and back. Motels, hotels and campgrounds are available at several locations along the entire way. Among stops noted by Automobile Club of Michigan are Marshall's Honolulu House and Cornwell's Turkey Farm north of town, Charlton Park Village and Museum near Hastings, Battle Creek's Leila Arboretum and Kellogg Co. cereal plant, Kellogg Bird Sanctuary near Gull Lake, and the campuses of Kalamazoo's Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College.

Garden Doctor says

Maggots like onions

This week's tips from the garden doctor included:

Q: Every year my radishes and onions have worms eating their roots. Is there any way to avoid this?

A: These one-third-inch long creamy white maggots that commonly get into radishes and onions are called root maggots. The control is to apply diazinon to the seed furrow before planting or to pour one-third cup of the diazinon solution around the stem of the small plants. Mix according to label directions.

Q: Are those clusters of striped worms eating the leaves of my fruit trees gypsy moths?

A: If the worms you are seeing have tent-like webs in the trees, they are the Eastern tent caterpillar. These now are prevalent and will be feeding until sometime in June when they will change into the adult form. Control tent caterpillars by manually removing the tent on a cool, cloudy day or spray the tent and foliage with Bacillus thuringiensis, Malathion or Sevin.

Q: Something is growing in the center of my rhubarb plants that looks like pale green crinkled leaves. Is this a disease?

A: This sounds like a seed stalk. Rhubarb plants are producing seeds prolifically this spring. Remove these stalks as they occur, since rhubarb growers are interested in stems, not seeds.

Q: Our beautiful, old spruce tree was diagnosed as having cytospora canker. The only recommendation we got was to fertilize it. Can something more be done?

A: Cytospora commonly causes branches to die near the base of old spruces. The vigor of the tree should be maintained by fertilizing at least every two years and watering during dry spells. Remove the affected branches on a dry day. Fungicide applications have not been proven effective.

Q: What are some good annual flowers for sunny and shady spots.

A: For sunny beds consider ageratum, baby's breath, candy tuft, cockscomb, cosmos, larkspur, marigold, morning glory, nasturtium, petunia, phlox, poppy, portulaca, scarlet sage, snapdragon and sweet alyssum. For shady areas try calendula, impatiens and pansies.

Harris eyes economic development panel

Wayne County Commissioner Edgar Harris has proposed the creation of a Wayne County Economic Development Corporation to assist smaller cities and townships in attracting new business and job opportunities.

His proposal was approved May 10 by the Public Works Committee of the County Board of Commissioners. Harris, a Democrat from Taylor, is chairman of that committee.

Locally-controlled economic development corporations were made possible by a 1974 state law, aimed at stimulating new economic growth, while retaining and expanding existing business and industry.

"Economic development corporations are springing up all over the state because they have been granted some real muscle in helping communities develop better commercial and job opportunities for their local citizenry," Harris said. "At present, Wayne County doesn't have this type of non-profit agency. I urge that we move immediately to set one up because I feel it could play an important role in reducing chronic unemployment problems."

Harris pointed out that nine counties, 18 cities — including Detroit, Lincoln Park and Westland — and four smaller Michigan municipalities already had established public economic development corporations.

"At present, Wayne County doesn't have this type of non-profit agency. I urge that we move immediately to set one up because I feel it could play an important role in reducing chronic unemployment problems."

Harris pointed out that nine counties, 18 cities — including Detroit, Lincoln Park and Westland — and four smaller Michigan municipalities already had established public economic development corporations.

"It's a vital economic tool if you sincerely want to create a strong local economy," Harris said. "The state has given these public agencies the power to issue bonds and acquire property for approved business projects in the public interest."

"Here in Wayne County we have several small communities that could benefit under this plan, but they don't have the fiscal resources or necessary manpower to do the job right," Harris added.

He said the county could "act as an economic umbrella" to make it possible for smaller communities to take part in this program.

"Any interested community could join us," he explained. "That way, they could take advantage of our long-term experience in this area."

Harris said the cost to the county would be "very nominal," mainly in in-kind services and administrative help.

"By law, the corporation would be run by a 9-member board composed of civic officials and businessmen from the communities electing to participate in this activity," he said. The board would be appointed by the Board of Commissioners.

"All public corporations also are mandated to cooperate with citizens who would be affected by any project they decided to undertake," he emphasized. "Local input and approval are absolutely necessary."

"And I want to further point out that a county-sponsored corporation cannot operate where there is an existing public corporation or where one is later created."

Harris, who has served on various committees to spur economic growth in Wayne County, stated that he particularly felt this setup would be most beneficial to a struggling business that wants to expand.

"Our smaller communities are losing industry and jobs because some businessmen don't have the necessary capital or power to acquire needed property for expansion, so they have to move out," he said. "A community-supported public corporation could help reverse that trend."

'A look at the Lord's hands'

"The Lord's hand is not shortened" (Isaiah 59:1)
"He showed them His hands" (John 20:20)
"What are these wounds in thine hands" (Zech. 13:6)

We have all at one time or another probably admired the praying hands in picture, plaque or in some other form. Many adults will be able to remember the comfort and love that was communicated through the hand of dad or mother in a time of fright and excitement. There is a mutual understanding and adoration experienced through the touch of the hands of those in love.

But, as we look at the Lord's hands, what do we see? I have listed portions of three verses regarding

The lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save..'

His hands as seen in three different dispensations of time. The first is the dispensation of law; the second, at the beginning of this age of grace; and the third has to do with the end of the time known as the tribulation period.

"Behold the Lord's hand", cried Isaiah, as he sought to arouse an apostate nation—a people who had gone into a condition of extreme demoralization. Isaiah, to describe character of their activities. No garment is produced by their weaving, and their works are characterized by iniquity and violence.

Now, as then, we find our society resting on a foundation that could lead to chaos. Men weave their schemes, vain and brittle as spider's webs, or hatch policies pernicious as the eggs of adders. They tread with swiftness the paths of mischief. They ignore the way of peace and justice, as prescribed by God, and follow crooked paths of their own. Solomon wrote, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Prov. 16:25).

Some educators, so called, have taught that the principles of the Bible on such subjects as child correction are wrong. Hence, we have reared a generation of rebels. Others have advocated the destruction of the wall of moral and sexual discretion, and we have, as one result, a staggering increase in the number of murderous rapes, plus the multitudes of young people who have been infected with venereal disease. Hundreds of thousands of youth and older people have died needlessly because of the greed for money of those who sell alcohol, plus the multiplied thousands today who are, including children, alcoholics. In the last few years, we see those who are working long and hard to liberalize the narcotic laws. I suppose they want to make dope addicts of us all. Yes, we have those who are advocating everything for the good of our nation except God's Word.

Oh, that we may look again to the hands that made our nation great. Hands, almighty to create. Hands, strong to save. Hands, potent to heal. Hands, tender to bless. Hands, sufficient to supply. Hands, strong to uplift and mighty to keep.

Surely, as Isaiah said: "The Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save: neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear; but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you that He will not hear."

What is the answer? A trusting in the nail pierced hands of a Saviour who came to seek and save that which was (and is) lost and in need.

Fr. Wytrwal, LaRoy head Development Fund Appeal

Fr. Alexander Wytrwal and Julius LaRoy, both of St. Stephen's Church of New Boston, is coordinating the 1977 Archdiocesan Development Fund Appeal (ADF) for the Western Wayne Vicariate of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit.

"Doing God's Work Together" is the theme of the annual appeal which is now underway in each of the parishes and missions of the archdiocese. It provides the funds for ongoing archdiocesan-wide programs of religion, education and charity in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Lapeer and St. Clair counties.

John Cardinal Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, has announced a minimum goal of $1,950,000 for the 1977 ADF. This represents an increase of approximately 8 percent over last year's total in pledges and cash.

Parishes in the Western Wayne Vicariate contributed $46,388 to the 1976 appeal.

Included in the vicariate are the parishes of Divine Savior, Holy Family, St. Kevin and St. Norbert, all of Inkster; St. Bernadine, St. Damian, St. Simon and Jude and St. Richard's, all of Westland; St. Camillus of Eloise; St. Dunstan and St. Raphael of Garden City; St. Mary's of Wayne; St. Aloysius of Romulus, St. Anthony of Belleville, and St. Stephen's of New Boston.

2 attend White House meet

Two Western Wayne County men are in Washington, D.C., this week serving as congressional delegates to the White House Conference on Handicapped Individuals.

Gerald T. Harris of Taylor, chairman of the Michigan Legislative Council for the Handicapped, and Ralph Hedman, treasurer of that same organization, are serving as congressional delegates, the only two among the representatives from the State of Michigan attending the conference. Hedman, a Belleville resident, also is serving as Sen. Robert P. Griffin's personal advisor on the handicapped.

Some 672 delegates from throughout the United States have converged on the nation's capital for the meeting, which began Monday.

The mission of the conference is three-fold and seeks to (1) provide a national assessment of the problems and potential of individuals with mental or physical handicaps, (2) generate a national awareness of these problems and potentials, and (3) make recommendations to the President and Congress, which, if implemented, will enable individuals with handicaps to live their lives independently with dignity and with full participation in community life to the greatest degree possible.

The White House conference was authorized throughout the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and amended in 1974. The gathering will give handicapped Americans "their greatest challenge and opportunity — to play a role in determining their own destiny".

This week's meeting is the largest gathering of persons with disabilities ever assembled in the United States and will include disabled individuals, parents or guardians and handicappers and those involved in research, business, labor, service delivery, medical, legal advocacy and the broad variety of activities surrounding the needs and concerns of handicapped persons.

The conference, being held at the Sheraton-Park Hotel, will run through Friday.

Bill would require seat belts in busses

Sen. John R. Otterbacher (D-Grand Rapids) has introduced a bill that would require installation of seat belts on all school buses operating in Michigan.

Otterbacher said passage of his proposal could help to make school bus transportation safer.

"At the present time no state mandates seat belts on school buses. In addition the federal government has failed to develop safety standards or guidelines in this area," Otterbacher said.

"Statistics measuring the use of seat belts by persons involved in traffic mishaps show a dramatic drop in fatalities and serious injuries, when compared to accidents that involve individuals not wearing safety belts.

"I believe we owe it to our school aged children to provide them with the best safety regulations and equipment available. They could be taught how to fasten the belts as part of their safety education course. In turn drivers would be instructed not to proceed on their runs until everyone buckled up."

The Grand Rapids Democrat pointed to a recent school bus accident in Oakland

Polish folklore concert at St. Mary Academy May 29

The Galicja Song and Dance Ensemble of Detroit will be visiting the Monroe community May 29 when they will perform at 3 p.m. at St. Mary Academy Auditorium.

The Ensemble is composed of 65 young adults who have been devoting years to learning the songs and dances of their ancestors. The learning process has been quite involved and the group has visited Poland for educational programs in 1971, 1973, 1974 and 1976.

In addition, the group has had the opportunity to be under the instruction of teachers who have either been educated in Europe and now live in the USA or who have visited the USA for several months. "Galicja", named after the region which lies in the southeastern part of Poland, specializes in authentic presentation of folklore. This includes following choreographic arrangements which are most closely related to the actual dances of the peasant people; and most importantly, it includes the wearing of costumes which are brought from Poland. The group has costumes, all hand embroidered and many from pre-War Poland, from as many as 14 Polish regions. Among those included are the costumes from Krakow, Lublin, Kurpie, Lowicz, Spisz, Zakopane, Lwow, Kujawy, Rzeszow and Warmia.

Together, the regions present a brilliant rainbow which represents the spirit of Poland's folk culture. It is a picture which, when coupled with the songs and dances, is not an easy one to forget. It remains with each audience that has ever seen Galicja perform as a warm and joyful reminder of the beauty found in Polish culture and tradition.

The artistic director of Galicja is Michael Krolewski and assistant director is Charles Lamendola. The orchestra is under the direction of Anton Sienkiewicz.

Aside from singing and dancing, members of Galicja are extremely active in the Polish community of Metropolitan Detroit. They operate several schools of Polish culture which are attended by approximately 500 young children. The largest of these Polish language programs is based at Transfiguration Parish in Detroit. Some 217 students attend classes held weekly. Other schools are located in Warren, Belleville, Hamtramck and Windsor. A sister group to Galicja conducts an ensemble for some 40 youngsters in the town of Canonburg, Pa.

Galicja has under its name the operation of the Adam Mickiewicz Polish Library in Detroit. In addition, there are plans for the opening of the first museum of Polish folklore which is scheduled for June of this year. The group also publishes a newsletter called "Pokoj" meaning "Peace". It is a bi-lingual monthly publication. Tickets at $4 for adults, $2 for children, are available from Helen Feitel at 699-4691 or Pat Evanski at 697-0409. Tickets will also be available at the ticket box office the day of the performance.

Henry Tkachuk's silver wedding marked at party

A party honoring their parents' 25th wedding anniversary was given May 1 by Shirley and Paul Robbins and Henry and Terry Tkachuk, all of Romulus.

casion, the hosts presented their parents with flowers — a corsage of white carnations with silver trim for Mrs. Tkachuk and a white carnation boutonniere for her husband.

Among the guests from Britton, Petersburg, Tecumseh and Grand Rapids were two members of the original wedding party: Felix Tkachuk and Albert Wielfaret.

The celebration at the Robbins' home honored Henry and Joyce Tkachuk of 38751 Wade Rd., Romulus. Mrs. Tkachuk was Joyce Stull of Belleville when she repeated her wedding vows April 26, 1952 at the Belleville Methodist Church. Besides their three children, the couple have two grandsons, Kris and Todd Robbins. Both Romulus employees, Henry works for Kelsey Hayes and his wife for Huron Cleaners. Their leisure time is spent camping and traveling.

Bake two, take one

The nicest kind of neighbor anyone can possibly have is the baking kind. You'd know her anywhere. She drops by unexpectedly with a pan of warm rolls or a homemade cake, and is likely to remark that it's just as easy to bake two cakes as one. What a technique for winning friends!

We hope you have a neighbor like her, or better still, that you're the neighborhood baker. If you're not, but would like to widen your circle of acquaintances, and please your family at one and the same time, try this recipe. Make a pair of Chocaroon Loaves, one to keep and one to give away.

You could also freeze the second cake for impromptu entertaining later, since Chocaroon Loaves freeze beautifully, though the glaze doesn't. (Omit it from freezer-bound cake.)

The recipe makes a rich, moist cake with showy patterns of dark chocolate and snowy coconut — perfect for afternoon tea, with after-dinner coffee or just anytime something delectable is in order.

And a more adaptable cake could hardly be found. You can use either cookie coconut or flaked coconut in it; bake it in two loaf or layer pans or one tube pan; and serve it plain, glazed, frosted, or with ice cream and chocolate sauce. It may not please everybody everytime, but it sure tries.

Chocaroon Loaves

1 egg white
Dash of salt
¼ cup sugar
2 tablespoons cake flour
1-¾ cups (about) cookie coconut*

3 squares semi-sweet chocolate squares
¼ cup water
1 cup (½ pt.) sour cream
2 cups sifted cake flour
1-½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar

3 eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla
Semi-Sweet Glaze
*Or use 1-one-third cups (about) flaked coconut.

Beat egg white and dash of salt until foamy throughout. Gradually add ¼ cup sugar, and continue beating until mixture will form stiff shiny peaks. Blend in 2 tablespoons flour and the coconut; set aside.

Heat chocolate with water in saucepan over very low heat, stirring until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Cool thoroughly; then mix in sour cream.

Meanwhile, sift 2 cups flour with the baking powder, soda, and salt. Cream butter; beat in sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Mix in vanilla. Add flour mixture alternately with sour cream mixture, mixing well after each addition. Pour about 1 cup chocolate batter into each of two 8x4-inch loaf pans which have been lined on bottoms with paper, and lightly greased on sides. Sprinkle ¼ cup coconut mixture over each. Repeat layers. Then top with remaining batter and coconut mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 to 55 minutes or until cake tester inserted into centers comes out clean. Cool thoroughly in pans on racks. Remove from pans. Top with Semi-Sweet Glaze.

Note: Cake may also be baked at 350 degrees in two 9-inch layer pans (making only two layers each of batter and coconut mixture in each pan) for 30 to 35 minutes, or in one 9-inch tube pan for about 55 minutes.

Semi-Sweet Glaze

3 squares semi-sweet chocolate squares
3 tablespoons water
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 cup sifted confectioners sugar
Dash of salt
½ teaspoon vanilla

Place chocolate, water and butter in a saucepan. Stir constantly over low heat until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Combine sugar and salt in small bowl. Gradually blend in chocolate mixture and vanilla. Makes about ¾ cup glaze.

Women's Study Club ends with annual spring banquet

The Women's Study Club of Belleville brought its 1976-77 year to a close May 11 with the annual spring banquet in the clubhouse of Lemontree Apartments.

A catered meal was prepared and served by Mrs. Doris Roe, Mrs. Violet Bird, Mrs. Alice Patterson, Mrs. Onnalee Wall and Mrs. Avis White.

The evening program featured Kerry Gowen of Royal Oak who presented a musical review of the progress of the independent woman from the 1800's up to today. A sing-along got her audience involved in the skit.

During the business meeting which followed, three new life members, Mrs. Roe, Mrs. Ina Lunde and Mrs. Edna Wright, were cited for their contributions and years of work with the club. Mrs. Lucille Touse presented them with corsages and gave a summary of their years with the club.

College Week for Women, scheduled for June 20-23 at Michigan State University, was emphasized since it is open to all interested women and does not involve college credits.

The annual ingathering at Loch Rio Girlstown was announced for May 21.

Mrs. Marian Paulsen will be heading a delegation to attend the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs District Workshop on June 29.

A special guest for the evening was Vera Fry of Berkley, president of the Federation's southeastern district.

Beverly PTO to hold fair Saturday from 12 to 4 p.m.

The Beverly Elementary School PTO will sponsor its annual fair, May 28, from 12 to 4 p.m. at 35408 Beverly Road, Romulus in the school's multi-purpose room.

Activities will include games, pony rides, moonwalk, bake sale, flea market and refreshments. Every hour, free prizes will be given away including such items as 5-pound hams, $5 gift certificates, steak dinners and much more donated by many of the merchants in the Romulus, Wayne and Westland areas.

Also featured, will be a 23-channel C.B. raffle. Tickets will be available at the fair. The highlight of the fair is the 20" high-rise bicycle which will be given away to some lucky boy or girl who is a student in attendance at the Beverly Elementary School.

Park face-lift

Girl Scouts Troop J315 spent their day off from school Saturday, May 14, at Elmer Johnson Park on Ozga Road in Romulus. The group of volunteers gave the area some tender loving care in the form of a litter clean-up. Twenty-five girls assisted in the effort under the supervision of their troop leader, Mrs. Linda Laws; her husband, Damon Laws, and troop assistant leader, Mrs. Sue Petrie. After the group had scoured the park, the grounds were put to good use as they played games and enjoyed a cookout. Among those participating were Patricia Laws and Janine Darda (photo above) and Michelle Petrie, Robin Petrie and Ruth Curley, (photo at left.) Members of Troop 315 are students at Wick Elementary School.

Girl Scouts help in study of elusive Kirtland Warbler

Where do our Kirtland Warblers spend the winter? Nobody knows. But 16 Livingston County Girl Scout troops helped the national effort to find out and learn more about the migration patterns of this endangered bird species May 20. The 10-to-12 year olds assisted 10 federally licensed members of the Michigan Bird Banders organization as they caught, recorded and banded several hundred migrating birds at the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council Camp Linden near Linden in Livingston County.

The Girl Scouts ran errands for the professional volunteers as they erected the loosely mounted mist nets, into which the birds fly and get harmlessly enmeshed so that the experts can identify and tag them prior to releasing them again. Bird banders, thanks to a 5-year apprenticeship, know close to 400 species of birds and can recognize each as a male or female, a first year juvenile, second year juvenile or adult.

The Bird Banders chose the Girl Scout Council camp site at the suggestion of the Hartland Nature Club. The local club uses the camp site for various projects and instructs the summer resident camp staff the members' specialties such as astronomy, plant and bird identification, geology, wild edibles and other nature topics which the camp group then passes on to the 600 girls who attend the camp through the summer.

The Kirtland Warbler puzzle has eluded naturalists despite long and intensive study. The species nests only in Michigan and only in 10-foot jack pines. But, their winter residence has not been traced. The species is growing gradually more scarce as its eggs, along with those of other species, are stolen by cow birds. The cow birds leave their own eggs in the rifled nests to be raised by the current mother tenant.

The Girl Scouts camped in the open in tents and participated from daybreak until 11 a.m. and again in the evening from about 5 p.m. until sundown.

Corn growing contest set for Michigan residents

Youths and adults throughout Michigan are invited to participate in a corn growing competition which will be part of the Michigan Corn Symposium, January 3-5, 1978.

The symposium, to be held at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, is being sponsored by the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service and agribusinesses in Michigan.

Persons entering the corn competition must obtain an entry slip from their local county Extension office and mail it to Lyle B. Thompson, Extension Office, County Building, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan 48858, by June 15, 1977. Thompson must have the harvest data and budget sheet by December 1, 1977.

The contest has four categories: adult, irrigated; adult, nonirrigated; youth under 18 at planting date, irrigated; youth under 18 at planting date, nonirrigated. Participants may conduct the project as individuals or as part of a club (FFA, 4-H, Grange, NFO, etc.) or as a private business activity. Any variety of corn may be used.

Yield may be obtained from one or two acres of full row length and the harvest area must be one continuous area. Weigh slips and moisture test must accompany yield data. Contest winners will receive cash awards of $100, $50 and $25 for places 1 through 3, respectively. Those entering the national contest must follow national rules.

The symposium is expected to attract more than 100 commercial companies which will have exhibits throughout the three days. Educational sessions begin the second day. The first program will concentrate on production practices. The second session will probe corn uses with special sessions for livestock feeding, grain handling, marketing and distribution.

BPW sends delegation to Boyne Mt. confab

Fifteen members of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) attended the 59th Annual Convention of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women held May 13-15 at Boyne Mountain.

Among the 800 attending the event were Helen White, Midge Artley, Arda Riggs, Fay Sotomayor, Vira Petraska, Margaret Saunders, Georgia Badgett, Ruth Baehr, Irene Christie, Ruth Davis, Mary Ferrett, Leona Farr, Barbara Mitchell, Dorothy Westergard and Susan DeFoe.

Keynote speaker at the Saturday evening banquet was Elly Peterson, national co-chairman of ERAmerica who expressed her confidence that all the remaining states would ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

Mrs. William Dazzazio of Ionia was elected president of the State Federation for 1977-78.

Susan Rosiek, editor of the Garden City Observer and a young careerist from Garden City, was chosen to represent Michigan at the national convention to be held in Louisville, Ky. in July.

Cheryl Fansler awarded Study Club scholarship

The Belleville Junior Study Club was awarded a $250 scholarship to Cheryl Lynn Fansler, a student at Washtenaw Community College.

The scholarship is awarded to a single woman with dependents who wishes to update or train for a specific career. The intent of the scholarship is to aid a woman (divorced, separated, widowed) who is raising children alone and who is simultaneously attempting to further her education by studying for a specific career.

Ms. Fansler, who resides at 9985 Hamilton in Van Buren Township, is the mother of two children, six and four years of age. She is currently studying the basic subjects preparatory to becoming a registered nurse.

Ms. Fansler was awarded the $250 scholarship at the Study Club's final meeting of the club year which was held at the Flaming Pit restaurant in Ann Arbor May 18.

Nair-Kress nuptials read at EMU chapel

Holy Trinity Chapel on the campus of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti was reserved May 7 for the afternoon wedding of Priscilla Ruth Kress of Belleville and James R. Nair Jr. of Northville.

The Rev. Robert Kerr presided at the 3:30 p.m. double ring rite which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Kress of 13787 Farm Rd., Belleville, and the son of Mrs. Shirley Nair of 19579 Mariner Ct., Northville.

Diane Craven was organist for the occasion with Sr. Joan Tirak providing vocal solos.

The bride, escorted up the aisle by her parents, was preceded by her bridegroom, his mother and brother, Scott Nair.

For her wedding day, Priscilla chose a Victorian style gown of organza over bridal taffeta embellished with Chantilly lace. The little fitted bodice was designed with a high collar banded in lace, a sheer yoke and shepherd sleeves with deep lace cuffs. Her full A-line skirt terminated in a chapel train with a lace-trimmed flounce.

A fingertip tulle veil, made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Gregory Snow, was attached to a Chantilly lace cap trimmed with mother of pearl sequins. A bouquet of red roses completed her bridal ensemble.

Making up the bridal coterie were Kay Vealey of Belleville, the maid of honor; Sally Nair of Northville and Mrs. Daniel Winans of Lansing, both sisters of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Patricia Sheff and Mrs. Gregory Snow, both sisters of the bride from Ypsilanti.

Appearing in identical outfits, the quintet donned full-length pink organza frocks with cutaway shoulders and long-sleeved floral print jackets tied at the waist. Their pink picture hats were encircled with pink ribbon and accented with a rose at the back.

Thomas O'Donnell of Southfield was asked to serve as best man. Others on the esquire side were Gregory Rexin of Northville; Paul Kress of Ann Arbor, brother of the bride; Charles Fales of Maton, a college friend; and Gregory Snow of Ypsilanti, brother-in-law of the bride.

At the reception which followed at Roma Hall of Livonia, the 150 guests were greeted by Mrs. Kress in a pink formal length gown and silver accessories while the bridegroom's mother was in a green floral print gown and green accessories. Both were honored with corsages of pink flowers.

The newlyweds, who honeymooned in Toronto, Ont. for four days, are now making their home at F-39 Westview on the EMU campus in Ypsilanti where both are in their junior year of studies.

The new Mrs. Nair is a member of Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary society for political science majors. Her husband is majoring in broadcasting and history. Both are employed by the Ford Motor Company at Rawsonville.

The rehearsal party was held at the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Warren A. Wood Jr. in Bloomfield Hills.

Artists may still enter Milan Fair

The Milan Arts and Crafts Club is now publicizing its Eighth Annual Art Fair, which will be held on Sunday, June 5, from noon to 6 p.m. The fair will be located in the natural setting of Wilson Park in Milan, Mich. In case of rain, the fair will be held at the Milan Middle School.

The fair is well attended and has had 80-100 entrants each year. The exhibits are diverse and include oils, acrylics, watercolors, photography, pottery, weaving, batik, lapidary, pewter, copper and other media.

This year's fair will be juried by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cassino.

Cassino is a professor of art and chairman of the art department at Adrian College. Mrs. Cassino is a candidate for a masters degree in fine arts from the University of Michigan. She is an artist and teacher and is affiliated with the Robert Kidd Associates gallery in Birmingham, Mich.

The fair will also include refreshments and a school art exhibit from students of Milan Area Schools. Artists are still encouraged to enter. For information, contact Mary Jo Huber at 439-2674 or write Ms. Carol Selter, 720 Dexter, Milan, Mich. 48160.

VB Garden Club holds 'library clean-up day'

The May meeting of the Van Buren Garden Club was designated as "Library clean-up, trim-up day." Mrs. Timothy Posthumus and Mrs. Harry Randall brought seedum and myrtle from their gardens as well as petunias which were planted at the Fred C. Fischer Library in Belleville with assistance from Mrs. Henry Deering, Mrs. W. E. Gault, Mrs. Jack Kulzer and Mrs. Walter Molik.

Mrs. John C. Oliver's Girl Scout troop has volunteered to lend a hand in the care of the library grounds.

Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Reginald Atyeo presented the nominations for officers to be installed at the June meeting: Mrs. Molik, president; Mrs. Joseph E. Horste, vice-president; Mrs. Kulzer, recording secretary, and Mrs. Randall, treasurer.

Hurlburts feted on golden wedding

The 50th anniversary of their marriage in Toledo, Ohio on May 9, 1927, was observed by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Hurlburt on Mother's Day, May 8, when members of their family hosted a reception in their honor.

Residents of the Romulus area for the past 33 years, the Hurlburts reside at 10280 Wayne Rd., Romulus. The former Alma Wise of Toledo and her husband are the parents of five children, 13 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Acting as hosts at the open house in the Romulus VFW Club were William J. and Grace (Hurlburt) Goldsmith of Belleville; Russell Hurlburt and Ms. June Hurlburt, both of Romulus; Daniel L. and Ardith (Hurlburt) Bailey of Belleville and Robert B. and Helen (Hurlburt) Walton of Garden City.

The 12:30 p.m. service at the Romulus Wesleyan Church was highlighted by the golden jubilarians repeating their marriage vows before The Rev. David Standfest. The "bride" was given in marriage by her brother, Harry Wise, who came from Toledo, Ohio for the occasion.

For her special day, Mrs. Hurlburt wore an orchid corsage pinned to her pale green princess style gown which had been made by her granddaughter, Sharon Harvey of Farmington. She and her husband greeted guests who arrived from Streamwood, Ill.; Toledo, Flint, Higgins Lake, Hillsdale, Temperance, Canton, Westland, Davison, Coldwater, Albion, Jackson, Concord, Ypsilanti, Garden City, Highland, Farmington, Gladwin, Belleville and Romulus.

They also cut the first slice of their 3-tiered wedding cake which had been made by Mrs. Fran Melick of Belleville. Letters of congratulations were received from Vernon and Mary Hurlburt of Higgins Lake, who had been attendants at their wedding, as well as from President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter and Governor and Mrs. William Milliken.

Mr. Hurlburt, a veteran of World War I, retired from Kaiser-Fraser Corp. in 1963. He and Mrs. Hurlburt are members of the Romulus Wesleyan Church.

Scholarship Month observed by ABWA

The American Business Women's Association (ABWA), Huron Valley Charter Chapter of Ypsilanti, observed Scholarship Month at its May 5 meeting at the Tin Lizzie Restaurant in Belleville.

Denise Sigworth, program assistant, and Linda Clemons, instructor of Wayne State University Studies, Weekend College, Program of Life Long Learning, were the featured speakers.

Ms. Sigworth's topic was "What it Means to be a Woman". She said, "More women are returning to educational settings. It is an outward sign of wanting to make it academically and the woman brings into a classroom a strong motive for learning." The studies program, held in Ypsilanti, meets the needs of working adults because of a flexible curriculum. Upon completion (four years) the student is awarded a bachelor of general studies degree. The student's studies help formulate some professional goals.

Ms. Clemons said that she teaches social science and that the reason a general studies degree is given is because there is no major in their program. It is designed to give working students a chance to get back into the main stream of education.

The vocational speaker was Evelyn Bachman who is retired from Ford Motor Co. and now works part time in a doctor's office. The chapter plans an all day rummage-bake sale on May 14 at the Howard Johnson Motel on Carpenter Rd., Ypsilanti, to raise scholarship funds.

Garden plots offered

Trinity Episcopal Church is inviting would-be area gardeners (who lack suitable growing space) to use garden plots that are available on the church's property.

Trinity Church will be responsible for the initial plowing and discing of the plots, and will also provide a source for water.

To help defray the cost of plowing and water use, a $5 donation is requested. No other charges will be made. Gardeners must also supply their own gardening tools.

Those interested in obtaining the use of a garden plot may contact Mary Wallace at 697-8373 for more information.

After touring Dublin and vicinity for a couple of days they were joined by Miss Mildred Mackey of Detroit. The trio then hired a car and spent three days touring Southern Ireland, going to Waterford and watching crystal being made, visiting Killarney, Cork, Limerick and Blarney Castle where all kissed the Blarney stone. Back in Dublin they left the car and took the train for Belfast, Northern Ireland, where friends and relatives of Miss Mackey met and entertained them royally, taking them on more sightseeing trips as far north as the Giant Causeway in Portrush.

Then from Carrickfergus the ferry was taken across the North Channel to Stranraer, where they caught the train to Prestwick Airport, arriving home on May 16, tired but very happy.

Ms. Mabel Hall of Morton Taylor Road was the dinner guest May 14 of a graduating classmate of 1942, Wash Osborne, and his wife in Utica. Two other classmates and their wives also were there.

Similos add fourth branch to family tree

The birth of their fourth child, a son, is announced by William and Gloria Similo of 95 Spencer St., Belleville. Arriving May 5 at Annapolis Hospital, the new heir weighed in at 8 lbs. - 5 1/2 ozs.

Titled "Kori Kristopher", the newcomer was welcomed home by 10-year-old Todd; 8-year-old Tracey and 3-year-old Tara.

The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Similo of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kochasic of Pennsylvania.

Non-stick cookware needs

Today's woman has no time — or desire — to scrub pots and pans. The non-stick cookware on the market eliminates the need for elbow grease, but it does require special care.

Here's how to scrub your new Teflon-II cookware from duPont:

- 1) Precondition before using for the first time by wiping with paper soaked in cooking oil.
- 2) For top of stove ware, use low to medium heat.
- 3) Wash after each use with detergent and hot water using sponge or soft cloth.
- 4) Never use sharp utensils.

FLOWERS AT FUNERALS

In ancient days, fragrant flowers and strongly scented spices were ever-present at funerals. Wild flowers lent a natural beauty to the tribal funerals along with a "living" tribute to the departed tribesman. Flower and spice fragrances "perfumed" the area.

Today, flowers have retained an important place in funeral service. Today we can't always pick our own flowers so we have florists who design and produce breathtakingly beautiful floral pieces.

Flowers add a bright, colorful beauty to a setting which may seem sombre to some. Flowers still add beauty to a casket and provide a hint of delicate fragrance. Floral pieces treat kindly our senses of sight and smell. Still a "living" tribute, they are an emotional contribution to the comfort of the surviving family, a testimonial that the funeral, indeed, is for the living! As an expression of sympathy and love, flowers serve admirably when the sender cannot be present to offer condolences. Most florists have developed special floral arrangements for funerals.

If you have questions about funeral flowers, ask us — better still, ask a florist!

May's top senior is Marie Napier

Because we feel the senior citizens of our community are very special, we are dedicating this column once a month, to a "Senior of The Month". Your suggestions will be most welcomed.

May's "Senior of The Month," Marie Napier of Canton Township.

MARIE NAPIER

was suggested by Deborah Smith of the Canton Recreation Center.

Marie, 72, was born in Stratford, Ont., Canada, in 1905, and moved to Detroit when she was three.

In October of 1976, Marie went to work for the Wayne County Office On Aging as a nutrition site manager at the Canton Recreation Center. Her job experience prior to that time had been extensive, having "worked most of my life".

Her past positions include working as a transit clerk at the Federal Reserve Bank for 12 years, working for the Ford Motor Co. as a first class mechanic during the Second World War, a position as a mail teller at the City Bank, and a bookkeeping position at a bank in Florida.

Marie has been a widow for 19 years. She met her husband, Edward, when she was 16 years old. When she was 20, they married. In 1958, six months after they moved to Florida, Edward, then 53, passed away. Marie returned to Michigan.

I looked forward to meetint Marie after listening to her cheerful voice on the telephone. I wasn't disappointed. The short time I spent with her was delightful. Since she drives her own car, we arranged to meet at Associated Newspapers. Marie arrived in a lovely blue and white dress that accented her attractive silvery hair. She confided, though, that she often wears slacks to work.

Marie, who says, "I just like people", does not limit her activities to job requirements. She has been known to arrive at work early in the day, to bake cakes for her seniors. She feels a special fondness for the shut-ins who get home deliveries from her site, often sending magazines to them along with their meals, and it is obvious, after talking with Debbie Smith, that Marie is considered dear by all who come in contact with her.

Marie lives alone with her dog, Cricket. She enjoys working in her yard and sewing. In 1937, Marie had surgery for cancer and fully recovered. Her message to other cancer patients is "don't be afraid."

Marie's family includes a sister, Helen Reardon, 86, of St. Lewis; a sister, Kathleen Bibeau, 76, a Canton Township resident; a brother, Edward Hassell, 70, residing in Detroit; a brother, Peter Hassell, 74, a Livonia resident; and two daughters, Clara LaCroix of Attica, Mich., and Jean Mae Williams of Indiana. Marie has five grandchildren, and soon will have six great-grandchildren.

Marie also is keeping an eye on her mail box. She recently wrote to President Carter, sending him pictures of her seniors, and telling him about the Wayne County Office on Aging's Nutrition Program. She also told him about "doing my share for the energy crisis", and asked him, "not to forget to smile". She feels, "the world would be a better place if we all smiled like President Carter".

Marie is hoping for an answer. I hope she receives it soon. And I hope the seniors at the Canton Recreation Center have the pleasure of Marie's company for a long time to come. The world is a better place because of Marie Napier.

Red Cross school set for water safety

Persons interested in being trained as water safety instructors can register for the third annual Michigan Safety School, sponsored by Red Cross, on June 11-19 at Camp Copneconic in Fenton.

"This year we are focusing on water safety courses. Students are trained to teach basic and advanced swimming techniques as well as lifesaving skills. The classes will also emphasize leadership training," said Kevin Kileen, director of Red Cross Safety Programs for the Southeastern Michigan Chapter.

Instructor training also is being offered in first aid, small craft safety, basic canoeing and cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) during the 8-day program.

Students choose a major and minor area of study at the safety school, where all necessary equipment will be furnished by Red Cross.

A charge of $107 covers all room, board, and textbook fees.

Eligible persons who are in good health, at least 17 years old and plan to use the training to teach others may obtain further information and register for the school by calling Red Cross Safety Programs at 833-4440, ext. 264, by June 1.

Losses don't stop benefits

Don't let lost documents prevent you from seeking veterans' benefits, the Veterans Administration (VA) reminded veterans and their dependents.

In the past, a VA spokesman said, "we have found that some veterans who cannot locate birth or marriage certificates don't apply for benefits because they believe these documents are essential."

VA will accept a certified statement instead of an original birth or marriage certificate when needed to establish eligibility, provided — in the case of a marriage — that it is the first for each partner and VA has no contradictory information on file.

In years past, VA required formal documentation.

Greeks open season

Ethnic festivals resume

"Yasso!"
The Downtown Detroit Ethnic Festivals will begin again in a whirl of color over the Memorial Day weekend when the Greeks open the summer event at the new festival site at Michigan and Third Street.
"Kalosoristate sto Festival" or "welcome to the festival", the Greek participants will be saying Friday through Monday. Immediately following the opening ceremonies at 7 p.m. Friday, the spirit, sights and sounds of Greece will come to life.
Continuous music and native dancing, displaying the rich Greek heritage will be the order of the day and evening until 11 p.m. Friday and from 12 to 11 p.m. Saturday through Monday.

Accompanying the music and belly dancing will be the tasty foods offered in dozens of booths at the Greek Festival. The booths will feature such delights as baklava, loukoumades (honey-balls), cheese and spinach pies, shish kabob and souvlaki. Greek wines and Ouzo, an anise-flavored liquor, also will be tempting the palates of festival-goers.
Native handicraft and imported Hellenic gift items will be for sale and will include such items as jewelry, linens, paintings and the popular greek worry beads.
For the non-Greeks attending the festival, here are a few words and phrases to get them into the spirit of things:

Say yassoo (hel.o) to those you meet and add a parakalo (please) and epharisto (thank you) to your requests at the festival. And in response to similar salutations, add another parakalo for "you're welcome." Feel like asking questions in Greek, try "poso kanie", or how much? And if the food is good try a tummy-pleasing comment of eyvfyeto (delicious).
An ethnic festival shuttle bus will operate from Cadillac Square to the festival site during festival hours, beginning Friday, and continuing throughout the summer. The fare is 15 cents, and buses will be running every 15 minutes.

With Detroit symphony

Haas, Severinsen close out 'Pops'

If you haven't been to "Cabaret Pops" yet, this week is your last chance.
The Detroit Symphony Orchestra (DSO) will wrap up its "spring thing" at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 E. Eight Mile Road, with radio personality Karl Haas tonight and tomorrow evening and "Tonight Show" trumpeter and band leader Doc Severinsen on Friday and Saturday evenings. Concerts start at 8:30 p.m.
Haas will take the podium as guest conductor and musical tour guide in a program entitled "Once Over Lightly." The format will be that of his long-running radio show "Adventures in Good Music", with the DSO providing musical illustrations from the Beatles to Offenbach.
This will be the first such live music staging in the Detroit area of the program-style heard daily by millions of listeners throughout the world. "Adventures in Good Music" emanates from WJR-Detroit, where Haas is director of fine arts, and is syndicated nationally over 26 stations and heard worldwide over 320 stations of the American Forces Radio and Television Service.
Haas is the veteran of several appearances with the DSO, most recently as a conductor in April 1975.
Severinsen sits in the first chair of today's popular music trumpet section, consistently topping the list in annual music polls conducted by numerous national publications. His previous appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra three years ago was one of the most successful and highly praised "Cabaret Pops" concerts ever.
His program this week will include a mix of the best-known trumpet pieces, including "Malaguena", and a collection of Severinsen originals, with DSO Assistant Conductor Philip Greenberg conducting the 97-piece Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The "Tonight Show" band leader went to NBC in 1949 as a staff musician and became a member of Skitch Henderson's Orchestra in 1962. He took over the orchestra when Henderson left the show and was soon as well known for his wit and wardrobe as for his brilliant trumpet playing. In addition to his role on the "Tonight Show", Severinsen appears in all of Johnny Carson's concerts, conducts brass clinics, is a guest soloist with major symphony orchestras around the country, and is in great demand as performer in night clubs and on college and university campuses.

Tickets for a "Cabaret Pops" table of four are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office. Single seats, if available, will be on sale at the door on concert nights.

Special marks anniversary of 6-Day War

"A Jerusalem Special," a program commemorating the 10th anniversary of the Six Day War, will air June 7, at 8 p.m. on Channel 56. It will be repeated at 3:30 p.m., June 12.
The program will provide background on the situation in Jerusalem today, spanning 2,000 years of the city's rich history. The report will concentrate on the last two decades, during which the city went through significant cultural and political transformations. The celebrations that are part of Jerusalem's observance of the Six Day War, in which Israeli troops took the city, also are explored in this segment.

The second half of the program will deal with the many religious, social and political questions which remain unsolved in Jerusalem today. Israeli and Arab representatives will address themselves to issues involving running a city with such a diverse populace and maintaining Jerusalem as a revered religious capital in this changing world.

The thoughts, fears and hopes of the city's people also will be sampled in brief, intensive profiles.

A specifically American perspective on Jerusalem today and in the future will be provided by Cleve Roberts, producer, reporter and writer of the program. Roberts is host of a nightly news and public affairs program on Los Angeles public TV station KCET. He is a veteran news correspondent, well-versed in the modern history of the Middle East.

Artists sought for fair

Local artists and craftsmen are invited to participate in the Schoolcraft College Art Fair from July 14 to 16.
The fair will be held on the Campus Mall between the Administration Building and the Forum Building from 1 to 7 p.m. each day.

This is one of the activities of the first annual Summer Writing and Arts Festival, which begins on June 27. Other activities include four intensive creative writing workshops, guest writers and artists, poetry readings and special demonstrations.

Artists and craftsmen in all media, who wish to display and/or sell their work, should call or write to Arthur Lindenberg before June 13 at 591-6400, ext. 441. Schoolcraft College is located at 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia.

Crucial victory

When starter Pat Bledsoe was struck on the arm, junior lefthander Jim Canfield stepped to the mound and got the job done for Wayne against Monroe. The 8-1 victory over the Trojans put Coach Jim Chronowski's Zebras ahead of the Great Lakes 8 Conference baseball pack. (See story on Fourth Sports Page).

Hansen shines at Class A regional track meet

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Neither a record heat wave of 91 degrees nor the pressures of state competition got to Wayne Memorial's Brett Hansen who beat them all at the Class A Regional Track Championships Saturday.

Hansen turned in superb performances as he won three gold medals leading the Zebras to a second place finish at Farmington.

Joining Hansen as regional champs were Belleville outstanding junior Chris Koger, sprinter Don Lewis, also of Belleville, Westland John Glenn's Ted Unold, and Livonia Churchill's Mark DeWitt

Hansen, who is a senior and a state runner-up in the high hurdles a year ago, captured a gold for his 14.9 effort in the highs, then set a school and regional record in the lows when he crossed the finish line in 38.6 and then picked up his third gold when he

Belleville hosts Suburban 8 track

Belleville junior Chris Koger and teammate Don Lewis served notice that they will be athletes to be reckoned with when the Suburban 8 Conference gathers Wednesday for the Track & Field Championships.

Belleville has also been designated as the host of the championships which will get underway with the preliminaries at 3 p.m.

Koger and Lewis split four first places against Dearborn last week as Coach Dave Medley's Tigers bowed the defending league and reigning Class A Regional champs.

Koger went 6 feet, 3 inches to take first in the high jump and leaped 20 feet, 11 1/2 inches in the long jump. Lewis dominated the sprints, winning the 100 in 10.6 and the 220 in 24.7.

The loss dipped Belleville's league record to 2-3 on the season.

Glory for a patient net coach

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Publicity embarrasses Mike Hairabedian and his low-pitch voice was barely audible when he asked, "Did you know our boys won the Tri-River Conference championship?"

"Our boys" referred to Cherry Hill High School's varsity tennis team.

MIKE HAIRABEDIAN

"This team was fantastic all season long," Hairabedian continued, "and I thought maybe you'd give them some kind of recognition."

"This is that same team everyone around here was laughing about three years ago when they won only one of their 17 matches and got all the publicity about it," the Spartan skipper added.

From the depths, Hairabedian has lifted his players to a perfect 12-0 Tri-River Conference year and a 17-1 over-all season.

Cherry Hill's lone loss was to Garden City East, the curtain-drawer for the 1977 season. Since then the Spartans have won their first conference title outright and also captured their first Class B regional championship.

They now boast a 17 dual match winning streak.

Hairabedian, who has been coaching Cherry Hill tennis teams for the past 15 years, is quick to a point out "that this is my best team."

In the Spartan line-up, Jeff Gehm ended a sensational senior year with a perfect 17-0 dual meet record. The No. 1 seed at the Grosse Ile regional, lost the title to Riverview's Don Egler after an exciting three set affair that needed a tie-breaker to resolve.

Gehm lost the opening set to Egler 7-5, recovered to win the second set 6-2 then fell 7-6.

"It was one of the most exciting matches of the regional series," said Hairabedian who isn't given to using superlatives or showmanship.

Cherry Hill's No. 2 stick is a junior, Greg Tachoir who hasn't been beaten in the league now for the past two years. His record of 16-1 made him the No. 1 seed in second singles at the regionals.

Tachoir also reached the finals but succumbed to Riverview's Tom Schummer after a marathon session. Tachoir sandwiched a 6-0 set between losses of 6-2 and 6-4.

The Spartans' No. 3 singles man, Dale Drabicki, who carried a 15-2 record to the regionals, won the coveted gold by beating Grosse Ile's Tom Papp. That duel also went three sets with Dale losing the first 6-4, then bouncing back 6-4 and 6-2.

At fours, Cherry Hill has a promising sophomore, Pat Sassen who won 12 of his 15 dual meet matches but couldn't break into the winning column at the tough Grosse Ile regional.

Cherry Hill had an undefeated doubles combination in Mike Jugan and John Ondejko who were awarded the No. 1 seed position at Saturday's regional. The two reached the finals but were detoured from winning the No. 1 doubles' title by Islanders' Stone and Shield who outlasted their rivals 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Greg Solovey and Craig Tyl gave the Spartans and unbeatable team in the No. 2 doubles. They wiped out their regional opponents after the senior netters compiled a 16-1 over-all season record.

Freshmen also had their place on this year's championship team. Lee and Todd Kill — who are twins — lost one match in the league all year and Hairabedian's assessment of the duo "is that they will be dominate figures on the court in the years to come."

Tennis, a game of vibrations and concentration, has been a part of Hairabedian's life "as far back as I can remember," he says.

"It is one sport that everyone can play and enjoy and will rival about any as to keeping the body in shape," the Spartan coach believes.

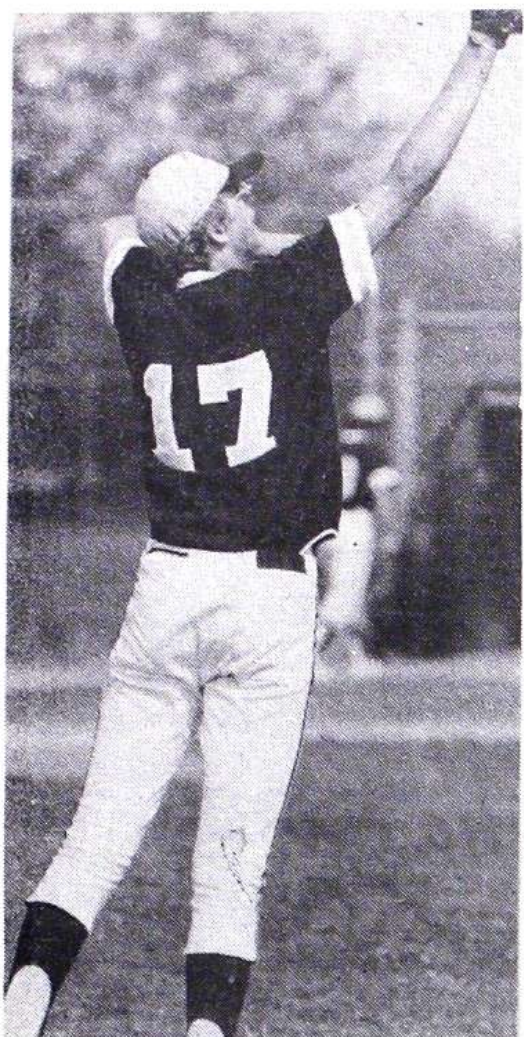

Another of his credos...

"Never underestimate an opponent and always be ready — mind and body — to give your best."

Is it no wonder that Hairabedian can make winners out of losers in just a short span of three years?

Robichaud slows Inkster express

SAC championship goes down to the wire

Reach for it

Sophomore first baseman Tom Shick unsuccessfully tries to haul down an errant throw, one of four errors committed against Belleville. Shick, who drilled a single and double, saw his efforts wasted as the Eagles dropped a 3-2 decision to their area rivals.

Inkster will get a second look at Robichaud High's baseball team.

The first time the two arch-rivals met it blurred Inkster's title vision and if Coach Preston James Vikings should falter they can forget about the Suburban Athletic Conference championship.

Inkster is amidst a title struggle after losing to Robichaud 9-8 in eight innings a week ago. The Vikings managed to bounce back and stop Highland Park 4-3 but lost to Willow Run 5-4, the latter an out of the conference affair.

The Vikings ended the current conference campaign at home to Robichaud on Friday after traveling to River Rouge (Monday) and Ecorse (Wednesday).

"This week will determine how good we are and just what hopes we have in winning the championship," said James whose Vikings carried a 6-3 SAC and a 11-5 overall record into this week's action.

On Saturday, Inkster also must prepare to meet Riverside in the qualifying round of the Class B district playoffs. The game is scheduled for 11 a.m. at Inkster.

Last Friday Inkster spotted Willow Run two runs in the first inning then unsuccessfully played catch-up the rest of the way in a 5-4 loss. Losing pitcher Tony Smith was touched up for 10 hits. He fanned four and walked none.

The Vikings rallied in the top of the seventh for two runs on singles by Tigre Taylor and Anthony Wilson who then pulled off a double steal and scored on Vincent Parker's pinch-hit single.

Maurice Smith got James Hicks on a strikeout to end the threat and the game.

Inkster's leadoff man Stanford Bush enjoyed a good day at the plate as he stroked a triple, double and single. Taylor and Alvin Dukes split four hits, all singles.

James' Vikings had to come from behind twice to nip Highland Park. A two-run Inkster sixth inning decided the issue as Dukes was safe on an error, stole second and Isaac Jones walked. A passed ball and strikeout later, Earl Keith came through with a two-run single to provide the winning and go-ahead runs.

Inkster second in the fifth inning to tie the score at 1-1 when Hicks walked, stole second and scored on Keith's RBI single, however, the Parkers rallied for two runs in their fourth to take the lead again 3-1. Parker's single drove in Dukes for Inkster's second inning score.

Robichaud slowed down the Inkster title express when it jarred loose a 9-8 eighth inning victory over the Vikings and reliever Parker. Dukes started on the mound and worked 7 two-thirds innings before James called in Parker.

Robichaud scored an unearned run in the eighth to beat Inkster who had exploded for five runs on the fourth to take a 8-5 lead.

Bush, Joe Harris and Keith each accounted for two Viking hits.

Cherry Hill '9' 2nd best in league

Winning three ball games in the stretch, Cherry Hill brought down the curtains to the Tri-River Conference baseball season with its best finish in recent years.

The Spartans wound up with a 9-5 won-lost record which gave them a cut of second place. They tied Garden City West which posted an identical mark.

Though faltering in the fading days of the league season, Taylor Kennedy managed to successfully defend its title. Kennedy had a 10-4 conference record.

"This has been our best finish in recent years," said Ken Mientkiewicz who ended his second year as head coach. "The boys really played ball in the stretch."

Cherry Hill will meet Divine Child on Friday to see which of the two clubs will advance to the Class B District Playoffs at Novi.

Meanwhile, Mark Lipinski remained the hottest pitcher in the league as he turned back Schafer 4-1 to boost his personal record to 6-2. Lipinski, a senior, notched 13 whiffs walked seven and gave up only four hits.

The Cherry Hill righthander missed a shutout when Schafer scored its only run in the seventh.

The Spartans went ahead 1-0 in the bottom of the second when, with two away, Rich Rimmel singled, went to second on an error and scored on Brian Shuster's double.

Cherry Hill exploded for three more runs with two away in the third as Lipinski and Mike Snyder both walked and Mike Doyle drilled a run-scoring single, then Jeff Bilek singled, loading the bases for Rimmel who singled in the final two runs of the league season.

Earlier, behind Scott Dawson's two-hitter, Cherry Hill humbled Southgate 6-0. Dawson twirled a two hitter in his finest performance on the mound this season. He also fanned six strikeouts and walked three.

Tim Hoffer belted two hits in four trips to the plate while Lipinski's two hits accounted for two runs batted in. Dawson helped his own cause with three hits in four appearances. He had two RBI's.

Lipinski put down Dearborn Heights Crestwood 2-1, pitching a five-hitter. He fanned nine and walked five, while losing hurler Derek Arzooonian was tagged for four hits.

Cherry Hill scored in the top of the fourth with one away when Snyder walked but was erased at second when Doyle grounded into a fielder's choice. Then, with two away, Arzooonian barked, moving Doyle to second and Don Boren rapped a run-scoring single.

Crestwood tied it up in the bottom of the fourth, and the knot was broken in the seventh when the Spartans scored what proved to be the winning run on a walk to Jack Slade, a forceout that put Rimmel on first, a stolen base and Mark Buck's hit.

Top track listing

Belleville High has a high jumper of All-American caliber.

He's Chris Koger who managed to beat out Ypsilanti's Dennis Lewis for the gold at the Class A Regional held at Dearborn.

Koger cleared 6 feet, 7 inches to win the event from the highly-touted Lewis who during the course of the year has successfully negotiated 7 feet, 2 inches.

Lewis's performance could stand up as a state record if he could repeat that effort in state-wide competition.

Meanwhile, Koger has taken over the spotlight because of his winning leap. He also is the top high jumper in the area as evidenced by the latest Prep Track & Field Listing.

Oh, yes...one more thing: Koger is only a junior and could wipe out Garrade Pettus' record off the Belleville boards next week at the state finals.

Pettus holds the record at 6 feet, 9 inches.

Here is this week's listing as compiled by Rance Teeple, assistant coach at John John. Teeple may be reached after 5 p.m. at home by telephoning 729-5769 or at the high school (728-1800).

Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

Here are some energy-saving tips to help take the heat off your air-conditioning budget this summer.

The right BTU and high EER spell comfort and savings.

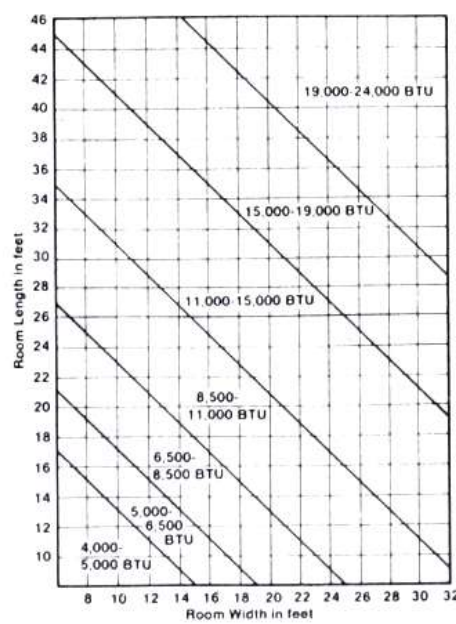

Whichever you choose, a portable room air conditioner or central air conditioning to cool the whole house, the right size unit (BTUs) and a high Energy Efficiency Rating (EER) will give you the best return for your air-conditioning dollar.

The right size (or capacity) is important because an air conditioner that's too small will work overtime and still not return the comfort you want. If the unit is larger than you need, it will cool too quickly, cycle too frequently, and not remove enough excess moisture from the air. You'll feel uncomfortable and clammy and you'll be wasting money on energy costs.

Some air conditioners use more electricity than others to do the same job. So look for a unit with a high EER number. The higher the number, the more efficient it is.

Here's how to size up an air conditioner.

To find out the size of the air conditioner you need, measure the length and width of the room you want to cool. If you're considering a central air conditioner, measure each room in the house.

Now find the zone on the chart where the lines for room length and width meet. The figure in that zone is the BTU output, an indication of the air-conditioning capacity required to cool your room. For a central air conditioner, add the BTU requirements together for all rooms.

A little simple division makes you an efficiency expert.

MODEL NUMBER ACR20B 74F
VOLTS	CYCLE	PHASE
115	60	1
COOLING BTU/HR	AMPS	WATTS
6400	7.5	800
BTUs		WATTS

To figure out the EER number of any air conditioner yourself, divide the BTU number by the number of watts needed by the unit. You'll find both numbers on the metal plate attached to the air conditioner.

For example, a unit that delivers 6400 BTUs with 800 watts has an EER rating of 8. (800 goes into 6400 8 times.) The recommended EER number for any air conditioner is 8 or more. You may pay a little more, but you'll save energy costs in the long run.

Keeping your air conditioner cool keeps you cool.

When you bring your portable room air conditioner home, install it on the shady side of the house. If you must place it on the sunny side, you'll keep your operating costs lower if you plant shrubs or trees near it for shade during the hottest part of the day. Carefully seal all around your unit and close cracks around windows and doors. If central air conditioning is installed in an existing furnace, it's important to seal all cracks in the air ducts.

It pays to insulate.

Good home insulation will keep you more comfortable in summer and cut down on your air-conditioning costs. It will also make a big reduction in your heating bill in winter. It's one of the best home improvements you can make and will pay for itself in a few years' time. Spring and summer are good times to have the job done when contractors are less busy. Detroit Edison can help you with the financing and give you the names of professional contractors. Just call or stop in at your Detroit Edison customer office and ask about Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan.

Tips to help you maintain your cool.

You'll conserve energy and save on operating costs if you keep your air conditioner in good working order. So before each cooling season, have a licensed service contractor check your unit over. During the summer, replace or wash filters often and keep outside coils free of debris, and keep cooling drain open for free condensate flow. Clean registers and return ducts regularly on central air-conditioning systems and avoid blocking cool air outlets. Set your thermostat no lower than about 10 degrees below the outside temperature for the most comfort and best efficiency.

Detroit Edison is a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation. The wise use of energy plays one of the most important roles in that effort. But it requires a working partnership between those who supply energy and those who use it. Selecting energy-efficient appliances is one of the ways you can help. You'll also save on your electric bill.

Conserve for all it's worth.
The power is in your hands.

Spartans present Grasley with 100th track victory

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Undefeated in their last 32 dual meet starts, Cherry Hill thinclads buried Schafer 102-56 last Thursday to present Joe Grasley with his 100th win as the Spartans' head track coach.

The victory will enable the four-time Tri-River Conference champs to enter Thursday's Tri-River Conference championships with a perfect 7-0 record.

Cherry Hill is favored to win an unprecedented fifth consecutive league title.

"This win over Schafer was a happy one for me because it provided me with my 100th victory," said Grasley, who has been at the helm of the track team for the past 11 years.

Grasley, however, sees once-beaten Garden City West as a threat to the Spartans' title plans.

"We have an excellent chance to repeat," Grasley said, "but I look for West to provide much of the opposition in stopping us."

"It will be a close meet, but our boys apparently muster up enough to win, and they have come through time and time again this year," Grasley added.

Taylor Kennedy will host the meet which will begin with the preliminaries at 3 p.m. The finals are at 5 p.m.

Franklin wins Midland title

Baseball tournaments apparently bring the best out of Livonia Franklin.

Coach Ron Hellier's Patriots, recently crowned the Walt Cosens Memorial Tournament champ, also captured the Midland Tournament championship Saturday afternoon.

"It seems that we play our best ball during tournaments," commented Hellier, which means bad news for the Class A district tournament hopefuls at Dearborn.

"We scored 24 runs in the three games we played in Midland," Hellier continued, "just superb all-around baseball."

Franklin, which has not played up to its role of pre-season Northwest Suburban Conference title favorite — the Patriots are 5-5 in the league — stopped host, Midland, 6-4 to win the invitational.

The Livonians rallied for four runs in the bottom of the seventh to pull it out as they hammered out two homers in the last inning.

Mickey Rotter started the explosion with a leadoff homer, his second roundtripper of the game, then Ken Scarpace doubled to put the tying run on base. Tom Hollandsworth walked and withmen on first and second, Jim Wilson belted a three-run homer to give the Patriots the victory.

Scarpace started the HR parade in the first inning, belting the first pitch of the game approximately 375 feet.

That tied the score up at one-all, but Midland again took the lead 2-1 in the second and widened the margin to 4-1 in the top of the fifth and the second-ranked Class A power appeared well on its way to victory.

But Rotter homered in the fifth for Franklin, closing the gap to 4-2. The Livonians then jolted their hosts with that four-run surge in the seventh.

"We hit four homers in the championship game and seven during the three-game tournament," said Hellier.

Gordie Wheeler started for Franklin but was yanked in the second inning after giving up a run, two hits and walking two. He was replaced by Al Casterdale who finished up and got credit for the victory.

Mark Wilkins went the distance in the semi-finals and pitched the Patriots past Midland Dow 9-2. He struck out 13 and walked four while his teammates supported him with a nine-hit assault.

Scarpace led the attack with two hits, including a double and homer, and Hollandsworth accounted for two for three including two runs batted in. However, it was Ron Reeter's key double which emptied the bases in the sixth what decided the game.

Franklin edged Alpena 9-7 an opener as Jeff Sergison, who relieved Casterdale in the second, was awarded the victory.

Jim Wilson drilled a two-run homer in the fifth and Calvin Beer laced a solo circuit blast in the same inning to highlight the Patriots' attack.

Scarpace wound up with two hits and two RBIs.

Franklin passed its pre-district qualifying test by edging Edsel Ford 2-1 earlier in the week. They'll meet Ford at Franklin on May 31 to see which of the two clubs will play for the district title at Dearborn.

Casterdale checked the T-Birds on a five hitter. He fanned eight and walked two.

Franklin scored both of its runs in the sixth inning thanks to a single by Dave Lulis, a couple of errors which put Hollandsworth aboard and with men on first and third, then Lulis scored on a throwing error and Wilson's singled in Hollandsworth.

Casterdale's bid for a shutout was ruined in the bottom of the seventh when Otis Manning led off with a home run. The Franklin hurler then buckled down a got the next batter on a popup and two strikeouts.

High hopes

Carrying Wayne High's hopes in the pole vaulting at the Great Lakes 8 Conference championships is Carey Crays who soars over the 13 feet marker in this performance. Crays and his teammates will be in Monroe Thursday to see if they can't replace the Trojans as the league champ.

Glenn gals finish third at regionals

Westland John Glenn and Wayne Memorial will send a 20-member delegation to the Class A state track and field finals which will be held June 4 at Bloomfield Hills Lahser.

Glenn finished third at the regional held Saturday at Farmington and will be represented by all three relays teams. The Rockets finished second in the regionals in the 440, 880 and mile relays.

Glenn's 880-yard relay team is made up of Valerie Marsh, Cathy Lehman, Debbie Everly and Kathy McDougall, while the 440-foursome is Lehman, Cathy Pagrazzi, Dawn Keith and McDougall. The Rockets' mile relay hopefuls are Leslie Chickley, Char Czubaj, Michelle Brett and Debbie Everly.

Miss McDougall also qualified in the 220-yard dash (27.9) and the long jump (17 feet, 2 inches) and Karen Curnutte will represent Westland in the high jump 4'11"). Borgess earned 52 points, Stevenson has 32 while Glenn picked up 23 1/2.

Wayne captured a gold medal thanks to Lisa Nibert's performance in the high jump. The 15-year-old junior cleared 5 feet, 8 inches, setting a record in that event.

Lori Sheridan finished second in the shot put (35'2") and also earned a second in the discus with a record 106 feet, 5 inches toss.

Debbie Berry will join her teammates at the regional. She qualified by placing third in the long jump with a leap of 17 feet, 3 inches.

Though she missed qualifying, Jill Preston set a school record in the low hurdles (16.5) and placed fifth.

Meanwhile, Ypsilanti beat Wayne in a dual meet 87-49 as the Zebras' over-all record hit the .500 mark (5-5).

Want to play tennis?

Tennis court rentals at the Westland Multi-Purpose Arena are available.

Courts are available from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m. on weekdays, and 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Court rentals are $1 per court hour from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday and $2 per court hour during the evening from 6 to 11 p.m.

On weekends, it is also $2 per court hour from 8 a.m. until 11 p.m.

Courts are rented on a first-come, first serve basis with maximum court usage of two hours per group dependent upon the number of players waiting to get courts.

Further information may be obtained by telephoning 729-4560.

Keeping close tabs

Making sure Romulus' Tom Shick (dark jersey) doesn't have any thievery like stealing a base on his mind is Belleville first baseman Charlie Childers. Romulus' bid to avenge an earlier loss to the Tigers fell short again as Belleville edged their neighbors 3-2 in a nonleague contest last Thursday.

Wayne covets track throne held by undefeated Monroe

If there is any team that can stop undefeated Monroe from retaining the Great Lakes 8 Conference track and field championship, it's Wayne Memorial.

Bolstered by three consecutive victories, Coach Ernie Righetti's Zebras will travel to Monroe on Thursday for the annual conference championships.

"Monroe has a perfect 7-0 league record and they're the defending champs," Righetti said, "so they have to be considered the favorite to win the championships."

Wayne jolted Riverview 83-47 and dumped Lincoln Park 92-44. The Zebras also disposed of a highly-respected Taylor Truman 88-46 last Thursday to tune up for the regional held at Farmington.

Wayne thinclads swept 12 of the possible 16 events against Truman as Carey Crays and Brett Hansen accounted for five first places.

Hansen, considered one of the top hurdlers in Class A competition this season, won the low hurdles with a 39 seconds effort, then came back for a victory in the 120-yard high hurdles. He was clocked in 15.0 Brett also won the long jump with a leap of 19 feet, 7 1/2 inches.

Crays cleared 13 feet in the pole vault and leaped 6 feet in the high jump for his two victories.

John Smith, who has moved among the top shot putters in the area, tossed 53 feet, 6 inches to claim that event. Earlier, against Riverview he had a put of 53 feet, 10 inches.

Winekoffs capture more gold medals

Carl and Rick Winekoff added the Michigan AAU Junior Olympics Freestyle Wrestling titles to their ever-increasing list of accomplishments.

Carl captured the gold medal in the 138 1/2 pound class while Rick was the top grappler at 149 1/2 pounds for wrestlers 15 to 16 years old.

Other members of the Spartan Wrestling Club who earned medals included Tom Gibson, who placed second in the 11-12 age group for at 70-pounds; Dan Gibson, a third place finisher at 65 for 9-10 years olds.

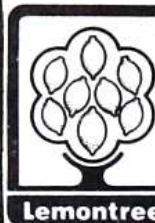

Victor Golden, a 55-pounder, also earned a third place medal while Ed Fowler (60 pounds) and Phil Swain (70-pounds) finished fifth and sixth, respectively.

The six local wrestlers qualified for the Eastern National Tournament which will be held in Shippensburg, Penn between June 23 and 26.

Wayne has 'high-noon' showdown

Duel with Ypsi to decide Class A playoff tourney berth

Wayne Memorial, a Class A state semi-finalist last year, will meet Ypsilanti, always a threat on the diamond and anywhere else, Saturday noon to decide which ball club will head for the Class A district playoffs at Belleville High.

Coach Jim Chronowski's Zebras survived their first test a week ago when they ousted Adrian behind Don Johnson's four-hit pitching performance.

Ypsilanti will host the pre-district game which will get underway at noon.

"Whenever you're involved in a one-shot deal, you have to be careful," Chronowski stressed.

"Ypsilanti is an excellent team capable of beating anyone and we're going to have to be ready for them."

Wayne was ready for Adrian as the Zebras staked Johnson to two runs in the first inning and added another in the third.

Meanwhile, Johnson was busy cutting down would-be Adrian hitters as he fanned 10 and walked three to raise his record to 5-1 on the season.

The senior lefthander has amassed 66 strikeouts and his 42 whiffs is the second best in the Great Lakes 8 Conference.

Jerry Smart got Wayne off to the winning start as he drilled a leadoff triple, then Doug McGill walked and, one out later Johnson helped his cause with a two-run single.

In the third inning, Billy Crews led off with a single, went to third on Jim Canfield's base hit and scored on Mark Grider's single.

Wayne took over the conference lead last week from Taylor Truman as the Zebras pounded Monroe 8-1 and stunned Taylor Center 7-1 to up their record to 8-2 in the conference and 17-6 over-all.

Pat Bledsoe started for the Zebras against Monroe and was forced to the sideline when he was hit in the left arm by a wild pitch in the third inning. He worked the first three innings before Canfield took over and cleaned up.

Canfield however received credit for the win.

Bledsoe, before heading for the bench, hammered a two-run triple in the first inning, sending home McGill and Crews who had singled to get aboard.

Canfield also helped himself to an RBI single in the fifth and belted a two-run triple of his own in the sixth, chasing home McGill and Crews, who had again singled.

McGill finished the game with three hits and mate Mike Paz contributed two, one an RBI single.

Canfield went into this week's action with a 5-1 record.

Bledsoe, recovered from the blow, faced Taylor Center on Thursday and put away the Rams 7-2 on an eight-hitter. He added five strikeouts and walked nine.

Wayne had to come from behind to win this one. Trailing 2-0, the Zebras tied it up with a pair of runs in the bottom of the third as Smart came through with a leadoff single, McGill then laced his first of two triples and, one out later, Johnson's sacrifice fly drove him home.

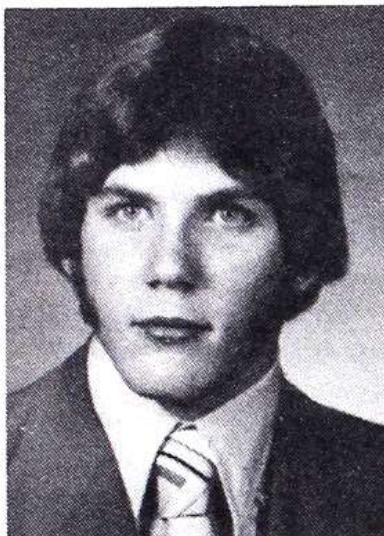

Wayne went ahead for good with a three-run fourth inning as Canfield doubled to start things going. Tim Clark then singled him to third and Bledsoe's sacrifice fly scored the first run of the inning. Paz singled, sending Clark to third and both Clark and Paz scored on McGill's second third-bagger of the game.

Craig Green's pinch hit home run with Mark Grider aboard accounted for Wayne's two runs in the sixth.

BRETT HANSEN

Hansen is 'triple crown' winner

covered the 220-yard dash in 23 seconds flat.

"It was one of the most outstanding individual performances by an athlete in that regional," said Wayne Coach Ernie Righetti. "Brett had to run so many races and that heat was unbearable."

Wayne came within two points of catching Detroit Redford which won the Farmington Regional title with 32 points.

"Our prom was scheduled the same day and we missed a key performer whom I'm sure could have made up the difference," Righetti said. "I wish they wouldn't schedule regional track meets on prom nights or vice-versa."

Wayne also received a second place from Rick Blaha who was third in the two-mile. He finished with a 9:36, while John Smith, who tossed the shot 50 feet, 2 inches, and Ron Mason, who ran a 2:00 for the half-mile, also contributed third places.

Koger shattered Dennis Lewis's hope for a regional gold in the high jump, Lewis's forte. The Belleville junior cleared 6 feet, 7 inches to top Lewis, who is among the top prep jumpers in the nation.

Lewis has successfully negotiated 7 feet, 2 inches but settled for third at the regional stage at Dearborn.

Belleville also received a gold medal performance from senior Don Lewis who won the 220-yard dash in 23 seconds flat.

Sophomore Bradley Bullock qualified for the state finals by running a 51.5 for the quarter-mile, good for third place.

Coach Dave Medley's mile relay team missed qualifying for state by one-tenth of a second as Bullock teamed up with Fred Gorney, Keith Williams and Harold Gable. They were nosed out by Trenton.

Unold took on the milers at Farmington and finished in classic style. Though off his best pace of 4:18.8, the Glen senior turned in with a 4:27.7, which earned for him a gold.

The Westlanders also will be represented at the state meet by their 880-yard relay team made up of Dan Smitherman, Tim McBride, Greg Houffley and Cliff Williamson. The foursome finished third in 1:32.4.

Churchill was runner-up to Pontiac Central in the regional staged at Milford. Coach Fred Price's Chargers amassed 38½ points, 11 points off the winner's pace.

DeWitt tossed the discus 148 feet, 11 inches to win the gold for the Chargers in that event, while Kielty finished third with a 147½" toss.

Kielty then heaved the shot 51 feet, 6¾ inches to earn his first gold.

Churchill had the runners-up in the high hurdles and the high jump as Rick Austin cleared the highs in 14.8 and Kevin Chaple leaped 6 feet, 4 inches in the high jump.

Churchill's 880-yard relay team of Mark Scaranino, Austin Ryan, Steve Coleman and Dick DeFlorio finished third (1:32.0) behind winner Pontiac Northern (1:28.9) and Pontiac Central (1:30.5).

Franklin is in the driver's seat

Holmes' Patriots stop Glenn's thinclads

Livonia Franklin set itself up as the team to beat at the 1977 Northwest Suburban Conference field and track championships.

The championships will be held Wed., June 1 at Franklin.

Undeclared in four conference dual meets after knocking off the defending champ, John Glenn 90-68, Franklin will be seeking its third title since 1971 when the Patriots won it outright.

Franklin also won the league title in 1973.

"In order to cement the title we're going to have to win the league meet," Holmes stressed. "This victory over Glenn puts us in the driver's seat. We're in a commanding position."

Franklin dominated the field events, sweeping four of the five first places. Senior John Adam accounted for two of those wins as he tossed the discus 144 feet, 1 inch and won the shot put with a put of 49 feet, 8 inches.

Jim Boldt contributed the long jump with a leap of 19 feet, 11 inches while Dave Kmet won the pole vault for the Patriots with a 12 feet performance.

Glenn's Bob Jennings prevented Franklin from making it a clean sweep as he won the high jump as he cleared 5 feet, 10 inches. Three others, including Glenn's Marshall as well as Franklin's Marek and Wilson also turned in 5 feet, 10 inches but were left in second, third and fourth places, respectively, because of more misses.

Glenn finished 1-2 in the 2-mile run as senior Ted Unold was clocked in 9:48.5 to nose out teammate Curt Cretal while in another photo finish, officials awarded Larry Acton first in the low hurdles as he and Glenn's Ken McBride wound up with a 40.1 performance.

Glenn's 880-yard relay team of Smitherman, McBride, Preston and Williamson had one-tenth of a second to spare over its counterpart. The winning time was recorded as 1:33.4.

Franklin retaliated by winning both the 440-yard and the mile relay events.

Livonia also had the edge in the dashes when Phil Yuhasz was a double winner. Yuhasz was clocked in 10.2 for the 100 and raced a 23.2 in the 220.

Canejo's Trucking has a half-game lead over the field in the Romulus South Little League Senior baseball Division.

After winning their first two games, Commercial Carriers dropped their next two games, one by forfeit.

Polka Dot was awarded the game last Sunday 7-0, while Truck Rebuilders upset the Red Squad 10-8.

Wash exterior glass with a household window cleaner or a clean lint-free cloth dampened with lukewarm water. Dry with paper towels. For stubborn glass areas, use a mixture of one part mild household detergent, four parts rubbing alcohol and five parts lukewarm water. Always be sure to rinse with clear water and dry with paper towels. To remove hardened spots, rub gently with a plastic potscrubbing pad. Tobacco smoke and vaporization in vinyl upholstery often leave stubborn film on interior glass. Remove with clean cloth dampened in a mixture of one part vinegar to one part lukewarm water.

Churchill's title stocks dip as Chargers lose key games

What a different a week makes. Leading the Western Six Conference at one time, Livonia Churchill lost three in a row and was shoved out of the title picture last week.

"It's really unbelievable what has happened to us," moaned Rog Frayer, Churchill's head coach. "I can't believe we lost the way we did last week."

Plymouth Canton, the defending champ, edged Churchill 2-1 and Walled Lake Western won nine innings on "prom night" to beat the Chargers 3-2, while the Livonians stopped Waterford Mott 8-3 to salvage one of three games.

Heading into the week of action Churchill carried a 3-5 record and little hope of catching Plymouth Canton which had only one league loss to date.

First for the good news. Jeff Morris pitched 6 two-thirds innings and Bill Bardwell got the save as the Chargers turned back Mott for their third league victory.

Bill Coyle had a perfect day at the plate for the Chargers as he drilled four hits and counted 5 RBIs.

Canton pulled out the 2-1 victory with two away in the bottom of the seventh.

Bardwell and Brian James were locked in a pitching duel, each allowing two hits when Canton settled the issue.

Bardwell's demise came with one-away when the Churchill hurler issued a walk to Rob Mandie, then served a two-run homer to Doug Smith.

Churchill was on the board in the third when Mark Galasso was hit by a wild pitch, and scored as Bob Campbell hit to short who threw wild to first, allowing the Chargers' lone run to score.

James fanned five and walked four while Bardwell got six on strikeouts and issued two free passes.

Frayer was forced to release his seniors last Friday so that they could attend their prom, and Western capitalized on the situation and won 3-1 in extra innings.

Dave Evanoff went the distance for the Chargers and took the loss. He gave up six hits, fanned seven and walked two.

Churchill scored in the sixth on singles by Campbell and Coyle who moved up when Mike Delvin sacrificed. Bardwell's single produced one run but the Chargers then left the other two on base.

Western tied it up in the top of the sixth and went on to win in the ninth on a single and a hit that resulted in a "home run error."

"It was a solid single," explained Frayer, "but our outfielder let the ball get passed him and it rolled to the fence for a homer."

Churchill will begin its bid for a berth at the Class A district playoffs scheduled for June 4 at Dearborn when the Chargers host Dearborn Heights Crestwood at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

Get swim passes

Good news for Wayne swimming enthusiasts. The Wayne Parks and Recreation Department announced this week that the Attwood Municipal pool will open June 4 and residents are urged to obtain season passes for the summer activities.

An individual pass will cost $5 per person, either for adult or child; family passes may be purchased for $20, but when buying family passes birth certificates must be shown for each member of the family.

Passes may be obtained at the Wayne Community Center, 4635 Howe Road, between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. during the week. Further information may be obtained by telephoning the recreation offices at 721-7400.

Checking in with a stolen base

Sliding safely into third base is Romulus' Russ Ayers who singled in the first inning against Belleville and eventually scored one of the two Eagle runs. However, that wasn't enough as Belleville rallied in the late innings to pull it out, 3-2.

'Blackboard flu' continues to haunt Romulus thinclads

Hampered by the "Blackboard flu" which has suddenly plagued the school district teachers, Romulus High's thinclads are nearing the end of what is their best season in recent years.

Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles whipped Wyandotte Roosevelt 101-52 and buried Clarenceville 100-57 to build up a 7-2 won-loss record going into the final week of action.

"It's too bad after the way these kids have worked that the 'blackboard flu' has suddenly come over this district," Wilkerson said, "but the kids are continuing to perform as they're doing an excellent job."

Romulus will end the dual meet phase of the season this week. On Tuesday, they'll run Lincoln Park and will meet Jackson Western on Thursday. Both are 4 p.m. home meets.

Romulus swept 12 out of a possible 16 first places against Wyandotte as Phil Bonam and Larry Young each accounted for two. Bonam won the low hurdles (42.1) and the highs (15.1) while Young was the top sprinter, finishing the 100 in 10.1 and the 220 in 23.5.

Inkster trackmen bow

Inkster's plans of stopping Robichaud's undefeated track title express failed as Coach Mary Mabry's Vikings were left on the shortend of a 95-57 count last Thursday.

Robichaud cleared the way for its fourth consecutive Suburban Athletic Conference championship. The Bulldogs, recently crowned Class B regional champs, will carry a perfect 4-0 record in the league championships.

Those championships will be held at the Dearborn Heights-based high school on Thursday beginning at 3 p.m.

the pole vault gave him a tie for second place.

Just missing the third place cutoff to qualify for state were Russ Good, who finished fourth in the vaulting and Russ Middleditch, also fourth in the high jump (5'11").

Franklin will be represented by two relay teams - the 440 and the mile relay - also with discus thrower, John Adam, who finished third with a 144 feet, 2 inch effort.

Coach Bob Holmes', 440-yard relay team, made up of Dave Bowen, Jim Boldt, Larry Acton and Phil Yuhasz, had the third best time at Farmington when it was clocked in 44.2, while the mile lineup of Nate Kean, Tim Rose, Bob Urben and Phil Frusti who also finished third (3:29.9) behind Detroit Redford and Stevenson.

Romulus sophomore Larry Young, competing in the 220-yard dash was clocked in 22.5 at Dearborn and finished third. He'll be the only member of Coach Al Wilkerson's team to make the trip to Flint, the site of the Class A finals.

Cherry Hill's Clarence Guyton came withing two-tenths of a second of winning a gold in the high hurdles, but settled for second place as he finished behind U-of-D High's Dale Powers. The winning time in the event was 14.5.

Coach Joe Grasley will also send a 440-yard relay team made up of Ivy Gregory, Ken Wilson, Tom Minor and Ed Salvetti to the state finals in Battle Creek. The foursome finished third with a 45.6.

Pat Pudelek earned the trip to Battle Creek after placing third in the discus. His performance was recorded as 125 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

"We are particularly happy about our 440-yard relay team," said Grasley, "we have three sophomores and a junior in the lineup."

with little fear of losing it to its rivals.

Decisive dual meet victories over its conference rivals make the Chargers overwhelming favorites to retain the championship for the fifth successive season.

Walled Lake Western will host the conference field and track championship on Wed., June 1.

"I feel we have an excellent opportunity of retaining the title," said Churchill coach Fred Price. "We'll be taking a 5-0 record into the league meet and, if all goes well, I can't see our boys collapsing at the championships."

Churchill will brandish a perfect 11-0 record and has stretched its dual meet victory string to 19 over a span of two years.

A sophomore stood out for Churchill against Canton. Essa Koury contributed three of the 12 Charger first places. He took the shot put with a heave of 45 feet, 11 inches and the discus with a toss of 127 feet, 10 inches. Essa also won the 120-foot high hurdles with a 16.4 effort.

Canton ousts Romulus '9'

Plymouth Canton, always tough at playoff time, struck for four runs in the seventh and eliminated Romulus 8-5 in their Class A pre-district qualifying round.

Canton got to losing pitcher Billy Suggs for two runs in the first inning, then broke a 2-all deadlock with two runs in their fifth.

The Chiefs came up with four runs in the seventh, then held on as the Eagles rallied in that inning for three runs.

Canton will take on host, Belleville, on Friday at 4 p.m. to determine which team will be represented in the district tournament at Belleville High.

Romulus, meanwhile, continued to skid as Coach Dennis Stoh's Eagles lost 12-8 to Oak Park and were edged 3-2 by Belleville after losing the tournament game.

The one bright spot of the week was Don McCann's performance at the plate. McCann padded his batting average to .407 for 18 games and has tied the school's RBI (runs batted in) record at 21.

"We outplayed the three teams we played last week," Stoh said, "but errors have killed us. Do you know that during the three games we have committed 14 errors which has given our opposition 20 unearned runs?" Stoh asked rhetorically.

Oak Park capitalized upon eight Romulus miscues to score 12 runs - nine in the sixth inning - to jolt Romulus 12-8.

Bill Suggs, who stepped in for starter Russ Ayers, was tagged for the loss. Ayers worked the first 5 one-third innings and the sophomore "did a super job", according to Coach Stoh, "but he tired."

Suggs inherited a 5-3 lead but became the victim of his teammates' ineptness on defense.

Romulus took a 5-3 lead in the fourth inning when Kelley Sumnerfield led off with a triple and scored on a single by Ayers, then Wally Brown walked, Suggs was safe on an error and scored with Doug Daniels' single. John Bozelak's sacrifice fly drove in the fourth run in that inning.

The Eagle attempted to come back in the sixth after the Parkers put nine runs on the scoreboard in that inning, but didn't make it.

Mike Marsiglia's record dipped to 1-3 as the Romulus hurler lost to Belleville 3-2. The Eagle staked the senior hurler to two runs in the first inning as Ahers singled, moved to second when starter Roy Rutherford walked Eric Moore and a wild pitch moved up the runners who scored on McCann's single.

The Tigers came back and tied it up in the fifth and won it in the sixth.

There's a chemistry
to Classified...

In chemistry, when you put the right elements together, miraculous things happen! The same is true with Classified Ads. We mix such things as blanket circulation coverage, well-written copy, fast distribution and low, economical rates to produce the most efficient method of getting your message to more people than is possible with any other type of advertising! That's kind of a miracle, isn't it? It all adds up to quick results and the mutual satisfaction of advertiser and reader alike. This is a good time of year to put this chemistry on newsprint to work for you. To place your low-cost Want Ad, just call one of our friendly Ad-Visors for help in wording and placing your ad. Then sit back and wait for good things to happen! Someone is sure to be looking for the very item you would like to sell!

Holiday traffic miles may top 700 million

Rising car sales, reduced unemployment and plentiful fuel supplies should help propel Michigan tourism to a near record Memorial Day holiday, with state motorists expected to exceed 700 million miles drive for the second time in history, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Not since pre-energy crisis 1973, when Michiganians drove 707 million miles, have state drivers passed that mileage hurdle during a Memorial Day weekend," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

Ratke estimated that state motorists would travel 701 million miles during the upcoming 78-hour holiday, a 3.2 percent increase over the 1976 Memorial Day total of 679 million miles.

The 78-hour holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at 12 a.m. Monday. Last year, 34 persons died on state roads over Memorial Day weekend, compared to 28 for the 1975 Memorial Day holiday.

"Michigan motorists are traveling at a mileage rate approaching that of 1973," Ratke said. "First-quarter traffic counts released by the Department of State Highways show traffic volumes on Michigan roads up 7 percent over a year ago. This is the highest beginning 3-month period since 1973."

Ratke said that since Michigan will not have to compete with last year's Bicentennial celebrations in eastern states, more families should be vacationing in the state than last summer.

The Auto Club official pointed out that vacation travel has not contributed significantly to the current rise in gasoline consumption, up nearly three percent for the first-quarter this year compared with the same period of 1976. Ratke said that vacation travel during the year accounts for only 2.5 percent of the total gas burned by motorists.

Auto Club is urging motorists to use extra caution on Michigan highways to help keep traffic deaths down. Last Memorial Day holiday's 34 traffic deaths was the highest total since the same number of persons was killed during the 1969 Memorial Day weekend.

The drinking driver was the major reason for the high death total last Memorial Day weekend.

Belleville teen vies for beauty crown

A 13-year-old North Junior High School student will be seeking state honors this weekend in the 1977 Michigan State Finals of the North American Pageant System. Tammy Winekoff, the daughter of

TAMMY WINEKOFF

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winekoff of Van Buren Street, Belleville, will be vying for the state title in the beauty competition.

The seventh grader placed first in the system's local competition, being selected as the prettiest in the 11-13 year age group.

The teen lists gymnastics as her favorite interest and has been a cheerleader for five years for the Little League. She also likes bowling.

Contestants in that portion of the pageant will be interviewed by judges and model a sportswear outfit of their own choice. They also model long gowns during the pageant in the state judging.

If Tammy wins the state contest, she could net a trophy, crown and banner, as well as a bouquet of flowers, U.S. Savings Bond, large stuffed animal, princess doll and entry into the national pageant.

The state finals are being held Friday through Sunday at the Kellogg Center in Lansing.

The teen is being sponsored by Phil Swan's Locksmith and Shoe Repair of Belleville.

Battalion Landing Team 2-6, homebased at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

His unit is the ground element of the 32nd Marine Amphibious Unit, the force-in-readiness for the U.S. Sixth Fleet or call to project combined air-ground combat forces ashore, if required.

BLT2-6 is scheduled to participate in numerous training exercises with units of the U.S. Sixth Fleet and visit several European countries during the deployment.

A 1973 graduate of Romulus High School, he joined the Marine Corps in October 1975.

Also in the armed forces:

Marine Pfc. Michael J. Schuster, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schuster of Morton Taylor Road, Belleville, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Depot at San Diego, Calif.

MICHAEL SCHUSTER

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill.

He joined the Marine Corps in January 1977.

Army Pvt. Richard D. Hill, the son of Mr. Mary E. Johnson of Wayne Road, Romulus, recently was assigned as a generator mechanic and operator with the 598th Maintenance Company at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Pvt. Hill entered the Army in November 1976.

CHAPTER XII ARTICLE 1

PORNOGRAPHY-DEFINITION

AN ORDINANCE to define promotion of pornography; to declare promotion of pornography unlawful; to define promotion of pornography for minors; to declare promotion of pornography for minors unlawful; to provide penalties therefore and to preserve the peace, health, safety and public welfare of the City of Romulus and the citizens thereof.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF ROMULUS:

Section 1.00

For the purpose of this Article, the words and phrases set forth below shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them:

1.01 "Audience" means one or more persons who are permitted to view a performance (A) for valuable consideration or (B) in or from a public place.

1.02 "Display Publicly" means the exposing, placing, posting, exhibiting, or in any other fashion displaying in any location, whether public or private, material or a performance in such a manner that it may be readily seen and its content or character distinguished by normal unaided vision viewing it from a public place or vehicle.

1.03 "Disseminate" means to manufacture, issue, publish, sell, lend, distribute, transmit, broadcast, exhibit or present material or to offer or agree to do the same, or to have in one's possession with intent to do the same.

1.04 "Material" means any printed matter, visual representation, or sound recording, and includes but is not limited to books, magazines, motion picture films, pamphlets, newspapers, pictures, photographs, drawings, three-dimensional forms, sculptures, and photographs, tape or wire recordings.

1.05 "Minor" means any person under 18 years of age.

1.06 "Nudity" means uncovered, or less than opaquely covered, post-pubertal human genitals or pubic area, the post-pubertal human female breast below a point immediately above the top of the areola or the covered human male genitals in a discernibly turgid state. For the purpose of this definition, a female breast is considered uncovered if the nipple only or if the nipple and the areola only are covered.

1.07 "Pander" means advertising or propagandizing in connection with the sale of material, the offering of a service, or the presentation or exhibition of a performance by appealing to the prurient interest of potential customers.

1.08 "Performance" means any live or reproduced exhibition, including, but not limited to any play, motion picture film, dance or appearance presented to or performed before an audience.

1.09 "Pornographic" relating to pornography.

1.10 "Pornography": Any material or performance is "pornography" if all of the following elements are present: (A) Considered as a whole, by the average person, applying the contemporary community standards of the City of Romulus, it appeals to the prurient interest; and (B) It depicts, describes or represents in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct, as hereinafter defined; and (C) It lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.

1.11 "Pornography For Minors": Any material or performance is "pornography for minors" if all of the following elements are present: (A) Considered as a whole by the average person applying the contemporary standards of the City of Romulus with respect to what is suitable for minors, it is presented in such a manner as to appeal to a minor's prurient interest; and (B) It depicts, describes or represents in a patently offensive way, nudity or sexual conduct as hereinafter defined; and (C) It lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value for minors.

1.12 "Prurient Interest" means the desire or craving for sexual stimulation or gratification. In determining "prurient interest" the material or performance shall be judged with reference to average persons, unless it appears from the character of the material or performance that it is designed to appeal to the prurient interest of a particular group of persons, including, but not limited to, homosexuals, or sado-masochists. In that case, it shall be judged with reference to the particular group for which it was designed.

1.13 "Public Place Or Vehicle" means any of the streets, alleys, parks, boulevards, schools or other public property in the City or any dance hall, rental hall, theater, amusement park, liquor establishment, store, depot, place of public accommodation, or other private property generally frequented by the public for the purposes of education, recreation, amusement, entertainment, sport, shopping or travel; or any vehicle for public transportation, owned or operated by government, either directly or through a public corporation or authority, or owned and operated by any non-governmental agency for the use, enjoyment or transportation of the general public.

1.14 "Sexual Conduct" means: (A) masturbation; (B) sexual intercourse, whether genital-genital, oral-genital, oral-anal, or anal-genital; (C) any erotic fondling or touching of the covered or uncovered genitals; buttocks, pubic area, or any part thereof, or the breast or breasts of the female; whether the conduct described in (A) through (C) is engaged in alone or between members of the same or opposite sex, or between human and animals or humans and inanimate objects; or (D) actual or simulated display or exhibition of the human pubic area or genitals or any parts thereof, or (E) sexual excitement as hereinafter defined; or (F) sado-masochistic abuse as hereinafter defined.

1.15 "Sexual Excitement" means the facial expressions, movements, utterances or other responses of the human male or female, whether alone or with others, whether clothed or not, who is in an apparent state of sexual stimulation or arousal or experiencing the physical or sensual reactions of humans engaging in or witnessing sexual conduct.

1.16 "Sado-masochistic Abuse" means the flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a sexually revealing or bizarre costume, or the condition of such person being fettered, bound or otherwise physically restrained, in an apparent act of sexual stimulation or gratification.

Section 2.00

2.01 It shall be unlawful for any person to promote pornography. A person commits the offense of promoting pornography if, knowing its content and character, he:

(A) Disseminates or causes to be disseminated any pornographic material in or from a public place or vehicle, or for valuable consideration; or has in his possession any pornographic material with intent to so disseminate; or knowingly allows any business, building, vehicle or place owned, leased, conducted or managed by him, to be used for such dissemination of pornographic materials; or

(B) Sells an admission ticket or pass to premises where there is being exhibited or is about to be exhibited material or a performance which is pornographic; or

(C) Admits, by accepting a ticket or pass, a person to premises where there is being exhibited or is about to be exhibited material or a performance which is pornographic; or

(D) Produces, presents, directs or knowingly allows the use of any business, building, vehicle or place, owned, leased, conducted or managed by him to be used for, a pornographic performance before an audience; or

(E) Participates in that portion of a live performance before an audience which makes the performance pornographic; or

(F) Panders, displays publicly, or disseminates door to door, any pornographic material or performance, or causes such pandering, public display or door to door dissemination.

2.02 For the purpose of this Section, possession of two or more identical copies of any pornographic material by any person engaged in the business of disseminating material, as defined above, shall be prima facie evidence of possession with intent to disseminate for valuable consideration.

Section 3.00

3.01 It shall be unlawful for any person to promote pornography for minors. A person commits the offense of promoting pornography for minors if, knowing its content and character he:

(A) Disseminates or causes to be disseminated to a minor material which is pornography for minors, or knowingly allows the use of any business, building, vehicle or place owned, leased, conducted or managed by him to be used for the dissemination to a minor of material which is pornography for minors; or

(B) Exhibits to a minor a motion picture film or other performance which is pornography for minors; or

(C) Sells to a minor an admission ticket or pass to any building, vehicle, or place where there is being exhibited or is about to be exhibited a motion picture film or other performance which is pornography for minors; Admits a minor to any building, vehicle, or place where there is being exhibited or is about to be exhibited a motion picture film or other performance which is pornography for minors; or

(E) Knowingly produces, presents, directs or allows the use of any business, building, vehicle or place owned, leased, conducted or managed by him for the presentation of a performance which is pornography for minors, before an audience which includes a minor; or

(F) Displays publicly or disseminates door to door any material or performance which is pornography for minors, or causes such public display or door to door dissemination.

3.2 Subsections (1) (A) through (1) (E) do not apply to a parent, guardian or other person in loco parentis to the minor.

Section 4.00

4.01 It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution under Sections 2.00 or 3.00 if the pornographic material was disseminated by a person who was acting in his capacity as:

(A) A teacher of an accredited course of study related to pornography at a State approved educational institution; or

(B) A licensed medical practitioner or psychologist in the treatment of a patient; or

(C) A participant in a criminal justice system, such as a legislator, judge, prosecutor, law enforcement official, or other similar or related positions; or

(D) A supplier to any person described in (A) through (C) above.

Section 5.00 This Ordinance is declared necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety and welfare of the people of the City of Romulus and is hereby given immediate effect.

Inkster residents thank police

Jane Ross (left), columnist for Associated Newspapers and long-time Inkster friend, presents huge decorated cake to wives of two Inkster police officers who apprehended two suspects with a huge cache of dynamite in their car near the scene of a recent bombing. Cake was presented by residents of the area in appreciation of the

Not as it seems

City Clerk Betty Miller and City Manager David S. Williams are not really glaring at each other as two photos above would indicate. Both were snapped in individual shots at Monday night's Romulus City Council session while in deep thought over topics being discussed on the agenda. Seriousness in each's expression is indicative of the weighty matters which came before the council.

Mayor's wife honored

Westland city employees rolled out the red carpet, complete with corsages and boutonnieres, for visiting officials Monday who came from Roseville for Mayor's Exchange Day. Mayor and Mrs. Leonard Haggerty, accompanied by Larry McGrail, director of

A good deed every day!

Marie Napier (right), manager of Canton Site, senior citizens center building in Canton Township, and her assistant, Mrs. Bernice Cummings hold plastic cartons containing prepared hot lunches which they supply five days each week to area elders. Hot meals are brought to the site by caterers where Mrs. Napier is in charge of ordering and arranging tables, as well as scheduling special lunches for her peers.

Gruber Performing Arts Center

A capacity crowd watches the Wayne-Westland Civic Players' presentation of "Forty Karats" at Gruber Auditorium where the Wayne-Westland Arts Association celebrated the current season with its "Awakening of the Arts." The auditorium has an excellent chance of becoming a new performance center for the two communities if efforts of association members to save the building are successful.

Presents key to Romulus

Mayor Jesse Miller of Highland Park (second from right) is presented with the key to the City of Romulus Monday by Gerry Canejo, president of Romulus City Council, during dinner festivities at Ramada Inn commemorating Government Day, third day in the eight-day Michigan Week celebration in the city. The day was highlighted with an exchange of mayors as Mayor Miller took over reins of city government in Romulus, while Romulus Mayor James C. Stewart assumed Highland Park's mayoral post. Looking on are Mrs. Ester Miller (left) and Beverly McAnally, Romulus councilwoman.
